

Article Review

Complete APA bibliographic reference:

Albright, L. K. (2002). Bringing the ice maiden to life: Engaging adolescents in learning through picture book read-alouds in content areas. Journal of Adolescent & Adult Literacy, 45 (5), p. 418-428.

Four or five descriptor names that best describe the topic:

Main: Picture books, adolescent literacy, read-alouds, social studies

Type of Article:

Other- Classroom Practice

Levels:

Middle School (6-8), High School (9-12)

Briefly stated major purpose(s) of the article:

This article provides a rationale and framework for incorporating picture book read-alouds in middle and high school classrooms.

“Other” article – summarize the major points in 2-4 sentences:

The article states many reasons to read aloud picture books in all content areas in secondary classrooms. The author then describes the three stages of planning and implementing read-aloud sessions: planning, preparing, and producing. Strategies for concluding lessons using the three stages are included as well as examples of starter questions. Throughout the article, the author provides examples of a read-aloud session and concludes the article with a bibliography of picture books about Latin America and sources for picture books.