

Article Review

Complete APA bibliographic reference:

Kameenui, E.J., & Carnine D.W., (1998). Effective Teaching Strategies That Accommodate Diverse Learners, 46-70.

Three to five descriptor terms that best describe the topic:

Main: Reading acquisition, diverse learners, early reader, phonemic awareness

Type of Article:

Classroom Practice

Levels:

Kindergarten
Lower Elementary (1-3)

Briefly stated major purpose(s) of the study:

“The purpose of this chapter is to apply the findings of current research on beginning reading to the development of effective instructional strategies for children with diverse learning needs” (46).

Discussion article – summarize the major points in 1- 4 sentences:

Educational research has brought us closer to identifying which factors determine effective beginning reading instruction. One of the most important findings in the research is the important relation between phonemic awareness and reading acquisition. Alphabetic understanding is another important factor because of the use of grapheme-phoneme relations to read words. Decoding words through the phonological/alphabetic code automatically is necessary.

--