Massachusetts General Laws, Chapter 64H, Section 6(e), as amended by Chapter 233 of the Acts of 1983, states as follows:

“The certificate of exemption issued by the commissioner under clause (2) shall be effective for a period of five years from the date of its issuance ... provided that ninety days prior to said date the commissioner shall notify such corporation, foundation, organization or institution of the expiration date of said certificate. Such corporation, foundation, organization or institution must obtain from the commissioner a renewal of such certificate in order to be entitled to a continuance of such exemption beyond the expiration date of any existing certificate.”
