

“Preparing for The Next Katrina: Putting Community Resilience Research into Action”
Conference Schedule

A CONTINENTAL-STYLE BREAKFAST WILL BE PROVIDED IN THE ADVANCED EDUCATION CENTER (AEC) LOBBY BEGINNING AT 8:10am

PANEL A: 8:30-9:45am (THE SCIENCE OF RESILIENCE): AEC 201

Chair: Dr. David Holt, USM

- 1.) Lindsay K. Welch and Zach Farmer, Mississippi State University, “The Value of Mitigation for Coastal Communities”
- 2.) Kandace Ballard, Auburn University, “Stock Control Policies for Emergency Hurricane Supplies”
- 3.) Whitford Remer, Loyola College of Law, “Building Resiliency with Water: Why New Orleans Must Incorporate Climate-Adaptive Water Management Strategies into Local Policy”
- 4.) Hal Needham, Louisiana State University, “Calculating Storm Surge Return Periods for Coastal Locations on the Gulf of Mexico”
- 5.) Oliver Kuttner, USM, “Geography of Natural Disasters as Illustrated by American and British Feature Films”
- 6.) Shrija Shrestha, Western Illinois University, “The Koshi Floods: Recovery and Community Resilience, A Public Health Education Approach”

PANEL B: 10:00-11:15am (CREATING EFFECTIVE COMMUNITY RESILIENCE): AEC 201

Chair: Ms. Ann Olsen, The Meridian Institute

- 1.) Kevin Johnson, Oklahoma State University, “Public Participation in Sustainable Recovery”
- 2.) Lee Gary, Tulane University, “A Neighborhood View of Resilience: Reinforcing Mitigation”
- 3.) Nabeel Siddiqui, USM, “Crosby Memorial Hospital: A Case Study of Disaster Resilience”
- 4.) Stephanie Stefanski, Tulane University, “A Cause for Cooperation”

LUNCH: 11:30am-12:30pm (KEYNOTE SPEAKER FROM THE KATRINA RESEARCH CENTER): LIBRARY, THIRD FLOOR

PANEL C: 12:45pm-2:00pm (THE ROLE OF POLITICS IN RESILIENCE): AEC 201

Chair: Dr. Mark Wrighton, USM

- 1.) Sharonda McClellan, University of New Orleans, “Emergency Managers and Planners: Together Planning for Disaster and Sustainability”
- 2.) Kevin Dougherty, USM, “Posse Comitatus during Man-made and Natural Disasters”
- 3.) Christopher Hare, USM, “Katrina in the Polling Booth: Post-Disaster Political Environments”
- 4.) Justin Miller, Mississippi College “Confronting the Homeland Security Dilemma”
- 5.) Wendy J. Griffioen, USM, “Potential Costs of Implementing the Proposed Municipal Zoning Changes Post-Hurricane Katrina”
- 6.) Michael Allen Jones, Mississippi State University, “Proper Channels: The Mississippi Politics of Hurricane Camille”

PANEL D: 2:15-3:30pm (SOCIAL AND BEHAVIORAL RESILIENCE): AEC 201

Chair: Mr. Justin Miller, Mississippi College School of Law

- 1.) Elizabeth Skilton, Tulane University, "Katrina You B*tch!: Social Resilience Through The Gendering Of Katrina"
- 2.) Gresham Kay, Mississippi College, "The Role of Social Capital in Communities Effectively Responding to Disturbances"
- 3.) Mark Harris, USM, "Sense of Place in Community Resilience"
- 4.) Kyle Overly, Oklahoma State University, "Psychological Recovery"
- 5.) Helma Kaldewey, Tulane University, "Collective Memory and Conspiracy Theories in the Aftermath of Hurricane Katrina"
- 6.) Alexandra Giancarlo, Louisiana State University, "From Camille to Katrina: Resilience and Memory along Mississippi's Gulf Coast"

PANEL E: 3:45-5:00pm (MEASURING AND MODELING RESILIENCE): AEC 201

Chair: Dr. Richard Forgette, University of Mississippi

- 1.) Lily Axelrod, University of Mississippi, "Using GIS to Measure Community Resilience"
- 2.) Thatianne Moreira and Daniel Blazo, University of Mississippi, "Local Governments and Community Resilience"
- 3.) Joshua Counce, University of Mississippi, "Small Business and Community Resilience"
- 4.) Ophera A. Davis, Northeastern University, "The Economic and Employment Resilience of Mississippi Women Survivors"

A BONFIRE SOCIAL EVENT WILL BE HELD AFTER THE CONCLUSION OF THE CONFERENCE ON THE BEACH ACROSS FROM THE USM-GULF PARK CAMPUS, WHERE DINNER WILL BE PROVIDED.