

College of Arts & Letters Undergraduate Research Conference 2011

Deadlines:

March 28: submit paper proposal

April 7: submit the actual paper for judging

April 16: the conference

Thanks to the generosity of an anonymous donor, we will be offering $500 prizes in each of the following categories:

- ✓ best paper using statistical methods
  - ✓ best paper using interviewing techniques as a primary source
  - ✓ best paper dealing with a gender issue
  - ✓ best paper dealing with an issue of race and ethnicity
  - ✓ best paper dealing with a transnational or international issue
  - ✓ best paper dealing with some aspect of religion or ideology
  - ✓ best paper dealing with a political, government, or military topic
  - ✓ best oral delivery of a paper at the conference
  - ✓ there will also be a “best in show” award
- ❖ Any paper written for a course in any department of the College of Arts & Letters is welcome.
  - ❖ You can submit a paper of any length to compete for the prizes.
  - ❖ You will have 15–20 minutes to either read a version of your paper or present it at the conference.
  - ❖ To be eligible for prizes, you must present your work at the actual conference (the only exception is a documented disability that makes presentation impossible).
  - ❖ Application forms are available in the History Dept. (4th floor LAB) or by e-mail.
