

Curriculum Vitae
Kevin J. Dougherty

Address: 27 Cinnamon Fern Circle
Hattiesburg, Mississippi 39402

Telephone: 601.266.4455 (Work)
601.264.4405 (Home)

Email: kevin.dougherty@usm.edu

Education:

Master of Strategic Studies, 2005, US Army War College
Master of International Relations, 1994, Troy State University
Bachelor of Science, 1983, United States Military Academy

Employment History:

US Army officer, 1983 to 2005. Retired as a Lieutenant Colonel. Various positions as an infantry officer and foreign area officer to include battalion commander and professor of military science/department chair.

Instructor, 2005 to present, University of Southern Mississippi, Department of History

Skills:

Planning and leading military staff rides.
Analyzing historical actions in terms of current and enduring military doctrine.
Analyzing national security issues in terms of the instruments of national power.

Publications:

Books:

The Peninsula Campaign: A Military Analysis, The University Press of Mississippi, 2005. Nominated for Ninth Annual Library of Virginia Award in nonfiction.

Civil War Leadership and Mexican War Experience, The University Press of Mississippi, 2007.

The Timeline of the Vietnam War, Amber Books, 2008.

Great Commanders Head to Head: The Battles of the Civil War, Amber Books, 2009.

Weapons of Mississippi, The University Press of Mississippi, TBP 2010

Nipping Away at Dixie: The Civil War Coastal Campaign, Casemate, TBP 2010

Encyclopedia of the Confederacy, Amber Books, TBP 2010

Contributions to Edited Volumes:

“Introduction”; “Kernstown”; “New Orleans”; “Gaines’ Mill”; “Corinth”; “The Wilderness/Spotsylvania Courthouse”; Kennesaw Mountain”; and Mobile Bay.” Battles of the Civil War: 1861-1865. Ed. Michael Spilling. NY: Barnes & Noble, 2007.

“Revival in the Confederate Army.” Taking the High Ground: Military Moments with God. Ed. Jeff O’Leary. Colorado Springs, CO: Victor, 2001.

Monograph:

“The Coastal War in North and South Carolina,” The Blue and Gray Educational Society, 2003.

Articles:

Over 55 articles in military professional and other journals including:

“Objective as a Principle of MOOTW: Selected Cases Studies, Lessons Learned, and Implications.” Global Horizons (Fall 2007): 64-95.

“Sherman’s Meridian Campaign: A Practice Run for the March to the Sea.” Mississippi History Now (Apr 2007). Available on-line: <http://mshistory.k12.ms.us/>

“Invading Sicily- A Tale of Branches and Sequels.” Joint Forces Quarterly (Summer 2002): 108-113.

“The Evolution of Air Assault.” Joint Forces Quarterly (Summer 1999): 51-58.

“Fixing the Enemy in Guerilla Warfare.” Infantry (Mar-June 1997): 33-35.

“Artillery Raids: Vietnam, Desert Storm, and Future Applications.” Field Artillery Journal (July-August 1996): 30-33.

“Bridging Doctrinal Concepts on the Decisive Point.” Military Review (July-August 1995): 62-65.

“The Indirect Application of Military Power: US Policy Toward Nicaragua.” Military Review (October 1994): 52-63.

“Bastogne: Aerial Resupply of an Encircled Force.” Army Logistician (November-December 1993): 25-27.

“The Viet Minh at Dienbienphu: Artillery in a Mountainous Environment.” Field Artillery (August 1993): 16-19.

“Supplying Merrill’s Marauders.” Army Logistician (May-June 1992): 28-29.

Encyclopedia Entries:

Encyclopedia of International Security, “Nation-building,” “Peace Enforcement Operations,” “Somalia, United Nations Operations in.” Washington, DC: CQ Press, forthcoming.

America in World History, “New Harmony and the Utopian Movement,” “The Civil War and Modern Combat,” “Blockade and U.S.-British Relations During the Civil War,” “Bosnia and the Balkan Wars,” “Humanitarian Crises and Ethnic Conflict.” edited by Susan Crean. Armonk, NY: M. E. Sharpe, forthcoming.

World War II in the Pacific: An Encyclopedia, “Aerial Resupply,” “Alamo Scouts,” “Los Banos Raid,” edited by Stanley Sandler. NY: Garland Publishing, 2000.

World War II in Europe: An Encyclopedia, “Anzio,” “Army, United States,” “Belguim and Flanders,” “Dunkirk,” “Dynamo, Operation,” “Eben Emael,” “Four Chaplains,” “Marshall, George Catlett,” “Ramsay, Bertran,” “Rangers,” “Rotterdam,” “Saint Lo Breakout,” “Salerno,” “Sicily.” edited by David Zabecki. NY: Garland Publishing, 1999.

The Korean War: An Encyclopedia, “Airborne Operations,” “Rangers, US Army,” “Taylor, Maxwell.” edited by Stanley Sandler. NY: Garland Publishing, 1995.

Book Reviews Published In:

Air Power, Blue & Gray Educational Society, Civil War Book Review, Journal of Mississippi History, Military Review, On Point, Tennessee Library Association

Conference Papers Presented:

“The Dominican Republic: A Case Study in Restraint,” Regional Conference on International Security and International Safety,” Northwestern State University, Apr 2008.

“Changes in the Use of Force, Decision-Making Models, and International Relations Theory in the US,” International Security/International Safety Conference, Mississippi State University, Mar 2007.

“Objective as a Principle of Military Operations Other Than War,” Global Policy and Development Conference, Old Dominion University, Apr 2006.

Courses Taught:

HIS 101 World Civilizations 1
HIS 101 Honors
HIS 101 World Civilizations 2
HIS 102 Honors
HIS 351 US Military History
HIS 360 Modern Military History
HIS 463 The US Civil War
PS 331 World Politics

Consulting:

“Civil War Leadership and Mexican War Experience” presentation for the Jackson Civil War Roundtable

“Lessons Learned From the Vicksburg Campaign” presentation for “Teaching American History,” May 2008

AP Reader, World History, 2007, 2008.

Amber Books. Reviewer of The Timeline of the Civil War.

Prentice Hall. Reviewer of Heritage of World Civilizations: TLC Edition.

McGraw-Hill. Reviewer of Traditions & Encounters: A Brief Global History.

McGraw-Hill. Reviewer of Structures & Systems.

Facility Security Officer, ARES Systems Group, 2007-2008.

Staff Rides:

Kennesaw Mountain, U. S. Army Infantry Officers Advanced Course

Vicksburg, University of Southern Mississippi Army ROTC

Vicksburg, Medical Task Force Shelby

Awards:

Outstanding Instructor Award, The University of Southern Mississippi Department of Athletics, 2006, 2007.

Third Place in Command Military Leadership Essay Contest 2002.

Second place in Joint Forces Quarterly Writing Contest 1999.

Third place in Military Review Writing Contest 1994.

First place in The Field Artillery Association History Writing Contest 1993, 1995, 1996.

Daughters of Colonial Wars Award for Excellence in American History, United States Military Academy, 1983.

Works-in-Progress:

“Weapons in Mississippi” (book-length manuscript being prepared for publication by the University Press of Mississippi in 2010)

“Coastal Operations in the Civil War: A Campaign Analysis” (book-length manuscript)

“Leadership Lessons from the Vicksburg Campaign” (book-length manuscript)