

Training, Resources and Information for the Attainment of Degrees

Youth Information, Training and Resource Center

Assisting youth with disabilities transitioning from school to adult life in accessing postsecondary training opportunities

Training Opportunities for Teachers, Guidance Counselors, Social Workers, Transition Coordinators and anyone working with youth who have a disability for staff development, community meetings scheduled training, etc.

Training is available on the following topics.

- Assistive Technology – what's available, hands-on computer demonstration, computer and Internet use
- Law Differences Between High School and College - IDEA vs. ADA
- Person-Centered Planning – review of process and leadership, self-determination and self-advocacy skills
- Other training focused on career and job opportunities; college and university options and services; and community resources

To schedule a training session, please contact Jerry R. Alliston, LMSW, CCM, Coordinator at 601.266.5979, 1.888.671.0051 (Toll Free/TTY) or jerry.alliston@usm.edu.

TRIAD is a project of the Institute for Disability Studies (IDS) at The University of Southern Mississippi, funded by the Administration on Developmental Disabilities (GR# 90DN0228). For more information about IDS, visit our Web site at www.usm.edu/ids.

THE UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN MISSISSIPPI
INSTITUTE FOR DISABILITY STUDIES

Targeted Counties

