

Training, Resources and Information for the Attainment of Degrees

Youth Information, Training and Resource Center

Assisting youth with disabilities transitioning from school to adult life in accessing postsecondary training opportunities

Training Opportunities for Youth with Disabilities

for classrooms, groups, clubs, after-school services, etc.

Training is available on the following topics.

- Assistive Technology – what's available, hands-on computer demonstration, computer and Internet use
- Career and Job Opportunities – options, technical programs, how to do a resume, interviewing skills
- College and University – options, where to start, campus life, accommodation services
- Community Resources – local, state and national level including recreational opportunities
- Healthy Lifestyles – exercise, diet, medications
- Law Differences Between High School and College - IDEA vs. ADA
- Person-Centered Planning - leadership, self-determination and self-advocacy skills

To schedule a training session, please contact Jerry R. Alliston, LMSW, CCM, Coordinator at 601.266.5979, 1.888.671.0051 (Toll Free/TTY) or jerry.alliston@usm.edu.

TRIAD is a project of the Institute for Disability Studies (IDS) at The University of Southern Mississippi, funded by the Administration on Developmental Disabilities (GR# 90DN0228). For more information about IDS, visit our Web site at www.usm.edu/ids.

THE UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN MISSISSIPPI
INSTITUTE FOR DISABILITY STUDIES

Targeted Counties

