The College of The Arts currently offers graduate degree programs at the master's and doctoral degree levels. Descriptions of these programs can be located in the respective departmental sections.

Deficiencies

The College of The Arts retains the right to determine deficiencies in the preparation of any graduate student, regardless of the number of course credits accumulated. The College will recommend appropriate means of removing such deficiencies.

Examinations and Performance Evaluations

Some degree programs require entrance examinations and/or performance evaluations. Regular admission to any graduate program requires submission of test scores from the Graduate Record Examinations. The departmental sections following in this Bulletin list general requirements for each degree program. Prospective students should confer with the department chair for full details. Approval of the graduate faculty in the appropriate department must be granted before a student will be accepted into a graduate degree program in any area of The Arts.

Final comprehensive examinations at or near the completion of the course work are required for all graduate degrees. The type, scope, and dates of the examinations vary, since they are matters of individual departmental policy. Each student pursuing a graduate degree should confer with his or her major professor and department chair for full particulars.

Degree Programs

Prescribed curricula for degree programs are listed below. Some provide great latitude and flexibility in arranging individual degree programs. Course selections must be approved by the student's major professor and graduate advisory committee. The approved course of studies for master's degree students must be filed with the student's department chair prior to the student's second registration. The student's major professor will assist in every way possible, but final responsibility for following all general and departmental regulations lies with the student. Prospective doctoral students must consult with the Coordinator of Graduate Studies prior to initial registration for detailed information about general and departmental regulations.

Master of Art Education Degree

The University of Southern Mississippi is a fully accredited institutional member of the National Association of Schools of Arts and Design (NASAD) and the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE). The Department of Art offers a program leading to the Master of Art Education degree. Regular admission to the program is based on an evaluation of multiple criteria, which includes a minimum undergraduate grade-point average of 3.0 in the applicant's major field of study, submission of test scores from the Graduate Record Examinations (GRE), a portfolio review, and three letters of recommendation should be from persons qualified to assess the applicant's readiness for graduate study and should be sent to the department or school. Conditional admission may be granted if the regular admission criteria are not met. Students must achieve regular admission before becoming candidates for the degree as well as for eligibility for assistantships. Undergraduate prerequisites for the Master of Art Education degree in the Department of Art are: (1) completion of a bachelor's degree in art education at The University of Southern Mississippi or an equivalent program, or (2) completion of any degree in the visual arts, or (3) satisfaction of Mississippi Class A teacher certification requirements in art.

Each student must demonstrate a studio proficiency appropriate for entry into graduate study by presenting a portfolio for review by the art education faculty, the studio faculty in the student's particular studio area, and the chair of the Department of Art. The portfolio should be submitted no later than one calendar month prior to the initial semester of application. Deficiencies which are identified may be removed with the successful completion of one or more of the non-degree credit courses (ARE 600 and/or ART 600) with a grade of no lower than B and/or by taking undergraduate course work as prescribed by the student's major professor and graduate advisory committee.

There are two tracks for the Master of Art Education degree. Track 1 is for students who wish to pursue a practice-oriented degree with 18 semester hours in art studio courses; Track 2 is designed for students who prefer a research-oriented degree which includes 9 semester hours in studio work, a six-hour thesis, or a non-thesis option (6 hours of ARE 691 or ARE 692). Students will culminate their program of studies with a written comprehensive exam. At least 18 hours of course work must be at the 600 level or higher. A 3.0 GPA is required for graduation.

Continuous Enrollment Requirement: Students must meet the requirement specified in the front section of this Bulletin.

Departmental Admissions

Deadlines for submission of application material (portfolio, proposal, three letters of recommendation, official transcripts, and GRE scores) are as follows:

For Summer Semester 2001: Deadline – April 1, 2001

For Fall Semester 2001: Deadline – July 1, 2001

For Spring Semester 2002: Deadline – November 1, 2001

Applicants must satisfy University admission requirements before becoming candidates for the degree or becoming eligible for assistantships.

Requirements for a Master of Art Education Degree are as follows:

Track 1 (Practice-Oriented)

9 hours of Art Education (ARE 601, 603, 606).

18 hours of Art Studio (from graduate drawing, painting, ceramics, printmaking, and sculpture).

9 hours in Art History (Elect from ART 500, 531, 532, 533, 534, 535, 536, 598).

36 total hours (42, if option is chosen to take REF 601, 607 in order to acquire state certification).

Track 2 (Research-Oriented)

12 hours of Art Education (ARE 601, 603, 606, 626).

9 hours of Art Studio (ARE 607 which may be repeated or ART 550 which may be repeated).

6 hours of Art Education Research (ARE 698, thesis), or (ARE 691 which may be repeated), or (ARE 692 which may be repeated)

3 hours of Art History (Elect from ART 500, 531, 532, 533, 534, 535, 536, 598).

30 total hours

Six additional hours of Research and Foundations (REF 601, 607) are required for Mississippi class AA certification and can be taken with either track (students must already have class A certification). These hours are optional.

Candidates in Track 1 must culminate their studies with an exhibition indicating achievements within their specialized studio areas. Candidates in Track 2 may elect to exhibit work from their specialized area of study.

Master of Fine Arts Degree

Major: Studio Art (Drawing and Painting)

The objective of the Master of Fine Arts program (emphasis Painting/Drawing) is to develop in students the skill and discipline required for sustained, self-directed, and creative art making based on professional standards and within a context of intense studio criticism and the study of aesthetics.

Regular admission to the MFA program is based on the evaluation of multiple criteria, which includes 1) meeting the requirements of admission to graduate study at the University of Southern Mississippi (details can be found in the appropriate section of the Graduate Bulletin); 2) holding a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree with emphasis in drawing and painting from the University of Southern Mississippi or a baccalaureate from an equivalent drawing and painting program; 3) submitting a portfolio which should demonstrate proficiency and preparation for graduate study in the proposed area of visual investigation and the delimited aesthetic visual problem area in which the applicant intends to work as stated in the written proposal; it should consist of a minimum of 20 slides, half of which should be painting and the other half, drawing; 4) submitting a written proposal which should definitively state the area of visual search and the delimited aesthetic visual problem area in which the applicant intends to work; 5) submitting three letters of recommendation which should address the applicant's academic preparation in the area of drawing and painting; and 6) submitting GRE scores to the Graduate School. Letters of recommendation should be sent to the department.

Departmental Admissions

Deadlines for submission of application material (portfolio, proposal, letters of recommendation, official transcripts, and GRE scores) are as follows:

- Summer Term: Deadline – April 1
- Fall Semester: Deadline – April 1
- Spring Semester: Deadline – November 1

Applicants must satisfy University admission requirements before becoming candidates for the degree or becoming eligible for assistantships.

Requirements for a Master of Fine Arts Degree in Studio Art (Drawing and Painting) are as follows:

- 18 hours of Drawing Studio (ART 601, ART 602, ART 603, ART 701, ART 702, ART 703)
- 18 hours of Painting Studio (ART 621, ART 622, ART 623, ART 721, ART 722, ART 723)
- 6 hours of Art History (selected from graduate Art History offerings)
- 3 hours of Seminar (ART 731, ART 732, ART 733)
- 12 hours of ART electives
- 6 hours of Creative Project (ART 799)

Each student has the final responsibility to ascertain that he or she has complied with all applicable catalogue requirements for graduation. Faculty Advisers assist students in developing their programs, but they cannot waive or vary degree requirements as they appear in the University Bulletin.

Continuous Enrollment Requirement: Students must meet the requirement specified in the front section of this Bulletin.

Master's Degrees

There are two master's degrees available in the School of Music, one with a major in music leading to the Master of Music degree, the other with a major in music education leading to the Master of Music Education degree. Emphasis areas in the Master of Music degree are: Performance, Church Music, Conducting, Music History and Literature, Theory and Composition, and Woodwind Performance and Pedagogy.

Regular admission procedures governing graduate entrance into the University of Southern Mississippi will be required. Details can be found in another section of this Bulletin.

Admission Requirements: Master's Degrees

In addition to acceptable grades and test scores, successful applicants to the master's program usually have an appropriate baccalaureate degree with a major in music, an acceptable candidacy audition (for performance degrees), strong letters of recommendation, and successful personal interviews. Letters of recommendation should be from persons qualified to assess the applicant's readiness for graduate study and should be sent to the school.

Members of all underrepresented groups are strongly encouraged to apply. Acceptance to the School of Music requires students to meet expectations beyond these requirements; see "Degree Candidacy."

Students who are unable to meet regular admission standards may be considered for conditional admission.

Note: The Graduate Record Examination is required for both conditional and regular admission.

Degree Candidacy: Master's Degrees

Degree Candidacy: Admission to graduate study does not imply admission to candidacy for a master's degree. A maximum of nine (9) hours of graduate work earned before one has gained admission to the School of Music can be applied toward a degree. To gain degree candidacy (i.e., admission), one must:

- a) take Diagnostic Entrance Examinations the Friday before school begins;
- b) pass a Candidacy Audition (Master of Music degrees only) during the first term of full-time residence or before completing nine (9) hours of course work; see pages 49 through 52, this Bulletin;
- c) pass all Special Examinations (see specific areas in which the degree may be earned);
- d) consult with the academic adviser, have an advisory committee appointed, and begin planning the total degree program early in the first term of attendance. This process must be completed before nine (9) hours have been earned;
- e) complete at least nine (9) hours of graduate course work relevant to one's degree plan with a cumulative grade-point average of 3.0;
- f) complete a Degree Contract, approved by the advisory committee and the academic adviser, before earning nine (9) semester hours. If the Degree Contract is not on file with the Coordinator before that point, credit hours earned above nine (9) semester hours will not be counted toward the degree.

Students who have not done the above will be asked to withdraw from the graduate music program.

Diagnostic Examinations and Auditions: Master's Degrees

Before the first term of full-time enrollment, all graduate students must take diagnostic examinations in music theory and in music history and literature. Students who do not pass the theory diagnostic exam must enroll in MUS 620, Music Theory Survey. Students who do not pass the history diagnostic exam must enroll in MUS 630, Music History Survey. Many entering students find that they do need to take these courses. MUS 620 and 630 must be taken in the first semester of graduate work. Part-time students must complete both courses before earning nine semester hours. A student with deficiencies may be required to take additional course work beyond the minimum required in the degree program.

Diagnostic examinations are administered on campus each Friday preceding the first day of classes in Fall, Spring, and Summer in Fine Arts building, room 212.

9:00 a.m. - Theory
10:30 a.m. - Music History and Literature
1:00-5:00 p.m. - Advisement/Registration/Fee Payment

Diagnostic examinations are also administered through the mail. To make the testing process feasible, please find a proctor, preferably a teacher in a nearby college or university, to whom we can send copies of your examination. Send the name and address to the coordinator of graduate studies.

Entrance auditions are also required for some degrees. These are:

Master of Music	in Performance in Church Music in Conducting in Woodwind Performance and Pedagogy
-----------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

The Master of Music in Theory and Composition and the Doctor of Musical Arts in Composition require submission of representative scores of the prospective student's compositions.

All graduate students should consult the academic adviser for current, specific policies governing the advisement of students, the presentation of recitals, and the administration of comprehensive examinations.

Ensemble Participation: Master's Degrees

All full-time graduate students majoring in music and music education are required to participate in an ensemble during each term of residence. A maximum of two (2) hours of graduate credit earned in ensemble work may be counted toward a degree. The ensemble in which one participates may be determined by the student's advisory committee. Appropriate ensembles are: Orchestra, Band, Chamber Music, University Chorale, Jazz Lab Band, Collegium Musicum, Oratorio Chorus, University Singers, Southern Chorale, and Opera Theatre.

Special Examinations and Auditions: Master's Degrees

All Special Examinations and Auditions must be passed before one can gain Degree Candidacy.

Jury Requirements/Final Examinations: Master's Degrees

Students who are enrolled in MUP Private Lessons in their principal applied area and who are seeking the Master of Music degree (with emphasis in Performance, Piano Accompanying, Church Music, or Woodwind Performance and Pedagogy) must perform a jury for the appropriate applied faculty. All others enrolled in MUP Private Lessons must perform a final examination for the applied teacher. At the finish of each semester and summer term, the applied teacher must complete a "Final Jury/Examination Form" for each student and file it with the graduate adviser. Students enrolled in applied music who do not take a final examination or a jury will receive the grade "I" or "F." All grades of "I" must be completed by the end of the next semester (excluding summer term). See "Grading System" in this Bulletin.

The applied teacher must record and submit any exception to this policy to the graduate adviser; signatures of all appropriate area faculty must be included on this form.

Comprehensive Examinations: Master's Degrees

Comprehensive examinations are required for all master's degrees.

The test will be prepared by the student's graduate advisory committee; it will cover the area of the major field. As a general rule, the Comprehensive Examination will be written.

The School of Music Master's Comprehensive Examinations are offered each semester at the same time:

- Fall: the first full week in November
- Spring: the first full week in April
- Summer: the first Saturday following the 4th of July

Exact dates and times are determined by the graduate adviser and are publicized as soon as possible.

Students must register for the exam two months (minimum) prior to taking the exam by calling 601-266-5363.

The coordinator of graduate studies must receive results of the Comprehensive Examination in time to notify the Graduate School no later than the last day for presenting signed theses to the Graduate School.

A student who fails the Comprehensive Examination may repeat the exam once; the test must be repeated within one year of the first Comprehensive Examination.

Advisory committee

During the first term of full-time residence or before nine (9) hours of graduate credit have been earned, the student and the student's major professor select those faculty who will serve as the student's advisory committee.

The major professor and the student shall develop a Degree Contract. In those cases where a student is required to take additional course work beyond the minimum required by the degree, the advisory committee will counsel the student and plan the program of studies.

This committee will submit questions for the Comprehensive Examination and grade it.

The advisory committee will approve the recital repertoire, will attend the recital,* and will grade the performance as Satisfactory (S) or Unsatisfactory (U); this grade, indicating the majority opinion of the advisory committee, must be recorded on the recital program and submitted to the academic adviser. Should a recital be judged Unsatisfactory by a majority of the committee, another recital, at a date determined by the advisory committee, must take place. Should a recital be canceled or postponed until a succeeding semester, the recital will be graded "E" (course in progress). When the grade of E is given, the student must re-register for the course and receive a letter grade for that course.

In degree plans that provide flexibility and in those cases where a student is required to take additional course work beyond the minimum required by the degree, the advisory committee will counsel the student and plan the program of studies.

Master of Music Degree- Performance (32 hours)

Candidacy Audition:

All students must audition for an appropriate faculty jury. Unless stipulated otherwise (i.e., Brass Performance, Percussion Performance, Piano Performance, Voice Performance), an audition tape will suffice. This audition must be deemed Satisfactory before one can be declared a candidate for the master's degree (i.e., before one completes nine (9) hours of graduate work; see Degree Candidacy). Early auditions are encouraged. At least 18 hours of course work must be at the 600 level or higher. A 3.0 GPA is required for graduation.

In all instances other than those in bold-face below, the audition must be at least thirty minutes in length and must include three works of contrasting style, preferably representing three different periods in music. (Repertory lists with representative works are available upon request. Write: (Name of Instrument) Professor, School of Music, The University of Southern Mississippi, Box 5081, Hattiesburg, MS 39406-5081.)

Brass Performance: For those majoring in brass performance a tape will not suffice; the candidacy audition must be a full recital for the USM brass faculty.

Percussion Performance: For those majoring in percussion performance, the candidacy audition may be on cassette; the applicant should demonstrate proficiency on timpani and mallet keyboards and should include a multiple-percussion performance.

Piano Performance: For those majoring in piano performance, the audition must be memorized, be at least thirty minutes in length, and be performed before the piano faculty; it must include works from at least three different periods in music (e.g., Baroque, Classical, Romantic, Impressionist, or Contemporary).

Voice Performance: An audition cassette will satisfy preliminary expectations, but before completing nine (9) hours of graduate work, the student must also sing for a faculty committee and fulfill the requirements below.

Voice performance majors must demonstrate, by audition (1) advanced vocal technique; (2) good diction in Italian, French, German, and English; and (3) good vocal quality and musicianship. The repertoire must be memorized and include (1) an aria from opera or oratorio; (2) a seventeenth- or eighteenth-century Italian song or aria; (3) a German Lied; (4) a French Melodie; and (5) a song in English.

Further, the student’s transcript(s) must show grades of C or better in two years of foreign language (any combination of two of the following: German, French, and Italian) and at least one course in diction for singers. Students lacking these will be required to pass these courses in addition to the requirements for the degree. In lieu of course work, satisfactory performance on language exams, administered by the USM Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, is acceptable.

Specific areas in which this degree may be earned are:

Bassoon	Oboe	Trombone
Clarinet	Organ	Trumpet
Euphonium	Percussion	Tuba
Flute	Piano	Viola
Guitar	Piano Accompanying	Violin
Harpsichord	Saxophone	Violoncello
Horn	String Bass	Voice

*Before scheduling a recital, the student must ascertain that all members of the advisory committee can attend. At least fourteen days before the recital, the student should issue a written invitation to each member of his or her committee.

Doctoral Degrees

Each student has final responsibility to ascertain that he or she has complied with all applicable catalogue requirements for graduation. Faculty and Advisers assist students in developing their programs, but they cannot waive or vary degree requirements as these appear in the University Bulletin. Students must read the “Doctoral Degree Requirements” section of the Graduate Bulletin; that which follows pertains to School of Music practices and policies; and it amplifies Bulletin statements.

Three doctoral degrees are available in the School of Music: the Doctor of Music Education, the Doctor of Philosophy in Music Education, and the Doctor of Musical Arts. A 3.0 GPA is required for graduation.

Students pursuing the Doctor of Musical Arts degree do so with an emphasis in Performance and Pedagogy. Specific areas in which the D.M.A. may be earned are:

Bassoon	Horn	Trumpet
Clarinet	Oboe	Tuba
Composition	Organ	Viola
Conducting	Percussion	Violin
Euphonium	Piano	Violoncello
Flute	Saxophone	Voice
Guitar	String Bass

Admission Requirements: Doctoral Degrees

In addition to acceptable grades (see Graduate School requirements) and GRE scores, successful applicants to the doctoral program must have an appropriate baccalaureate and/or masters degree with a major in music, an acceptable candidacy audition (for DMA degrees), strong letters of recommendation, and successful personal interviews. Letters of recommendation should be from persons qualified to assess the applicant’s readiness for graduate study and should be sent to the School of Music. Members of all under-represented groups are strongly encouraged to apply. Acceptance to the School of Music requires students to meet expectations beyond these requirements; see “Degree Candidacy.”

Students who are unable to meet regular admissions standards may be considered for conditional admission. (For details concerning conditional admission, see “Admission Requirements and Procedures,” Graduate Bulletin, The University of Southern Mississippi.) Please note: The Graduate Record Examination is required for both conditional and regular admission.

Important Note: Acceptance into the doctoral degree programs of the School of Music requires that students meet expectations beyond those stipulated in the Graduate Bulletin; see “Acceptance into the School of Music,” this bulletin.

Ensemble Participation: Doctoral Degrees

A maximum of two (2) hours of graduate credit earned in ensemble work may be counted toward a degree. The ensemble in which one participates may be determined by the student’s advisory committee.

Acceptance into the School of Music: Doctoral Degrees

Acceptance: Admission to graduate study does not imply acceptance into the School of Music for doctoral-level study. A maximum of nine (9) hours of graduate work earned before one has gained admission to the School of Music can be applied towards a degree. To gain acceptance, one must:

- Performance and Pedagogy: possess a master’s degree; Music Education: possess a master’s degree in music with state licensure and at least three years of successful teaching experience (K-12);
- take Diagnostic Entrance Examinations the Friday before school begins;
- pass a Candidacy Audition (D.M.A. in Performance and Pedagogy, Applied areas only) prior to or during the first term of full-time residence or before completing nine (9) hours of course work;
- pass a Candidacy Audition (D.M.A. in Performance and Pedagogy, Conducting Area only) prior to the first term of enrollment;
- submit and gain approval for a portfolio of one’s representative scores and/or recordings prior to the first term of enrollment (D.M.A. in Performance and Pedagogy, Composition area only);
- pass all Entrance Examinations, D.M.A. Special Examinations (see specific areas in which the D.M.A. may be earned);
- consult with the academic adviser, have a major professor and an advisory committee appointed, and begin planning the total degree program early in the first term of attendance or before nine (9) semester hours have been earned;

- h) complete at least nine (9) hours of graduate course work relevant to one's degree plan with a cumulative grade-point average of 3.5;
- i) by the end of the second semester, all doctoral students must: complete a Degree Planning Sheet, approved by the advisory committee. (Doctoral students should be counseled by their advisory committee before registering for courses); pass Qualifying exams.

Diagnostic Entrance Examinations: Doctoral Degrees

All entering doctoral students are required to take a Diagnostic Entrance Examination consisting of three parts: music theory, music history, and expository writing. The purposes of this examination are (1) to determine if the student has foundation-level deficiencies that need to be addressed in order for him/her to be successful in doctoral level courses, on the Qualifying Examinations and on the Comprehensive Examinations; and (2) to provide information that will guide the student and his/her adviser in selecting useful and appropriate academic courses.

Students who fail either or both of the theory and history sections of the Diagnostic Examination will be required to enroll in the appropriate review courses (MUS 620 and/or MUS 630) during their first semester of full-time study and will be required to earn a grade of "B" or better in that/those courses(s). Many entering students find that they do need to take these review courses. Students who plan to enroll in full-time study during the spring semester must pass the theory and history sections of the Diagnostic Entrance Examination or delay their enrollment until a semester in which those courses are taught (theory and history review courses are traditionally taught in the summer and fall semesters only). Students who fail either the theory or history sections (or both) and intend to pursue graduate study part-time must complete the appropriate review course(s) before completing 12 credit hours. In some instances student may be required to enroll in one or more appropriate undergraduate courses. Credits earned in these courses (both the review courses and any required undergraduate course) are not counted toward the doctoral degree.

Students who do not pass the expository writing section of the Diagnostic Examination may be advised to take an appropriate writing course in the English department and will be required to take MUS 500 ("Writing about Music"), even if it is not one of their degree requirements.

All Diagnostic Examination results will be sent to the student's major professor so that the major professor and the student can plan an initial program of study. This program of study may be amended after the student's Advisory Committee is appointed and/or upon completion of the Qualifying Examination.

The Diagnostic Entrance Examinations are administered on campus each Friday preceding the first day of classes in Fall, Spring, and Summer.

9:30 a.m. - Theory

10:30 a.m. - Music History and Literature and Expository Writing

1:00 - 5:00 p.m. - Advisement/Registration/Fee Payment

These examinations are also administered through the mail. To make the testing process feasible, a proctor, preferably a teacher in a nearby college or university, may administer the examination. Submit the name and address of the proctor to the coordinator of Graduate Studies.

Qualifying Examinations: Doctoral Degrees

All doctoral students are required to complete a Qualifying Examination consisting of three written components (music theory, music history, and the student's major area) and an interview with the student's advisory committee. This examination must be completed at the end of the second semester of full-time doctoral study. Part-time students must complete this examination at the end of the third semester of enrollment. The purpose of the Qualifying Examination is to determine if, after a year of doctoral course work (which may include review courses and of independent study, the student is academically qualified to proceed with doctoral study. In order to be successful on the written portions of this examination, the student must be able to think critically and be able to synthesize material from a variety of sources. Sample examinations may be available to students in some areas. The interview will occur after the written parts of the examination are completed and may include questions about the written portions of the examination, about material not covered on the written portions, and about the student's background and future plans. The Qualifying Examination is not complete until the interview has taken place. Doctoral students should consult their major professor and the coordinator of graduate studies regarding examination policies beyond those listed in the Bulletin.

The emphasis area portion of the Qualifying Examination (e.g., music education, conducting, music performance, etc.) will be graded by those members of the student's committee representing the emphasis area. The music theory and history portions will be graded by theory and history faculty, respectively.

A scale of 1 to 5 will be used in grading Qualifying Examinations, with grades of 1-2 indicating a failure and grades 3-5 indicating passing. A student who fails any part of the Qualifying Examination may, with the permission of his or her committee, repeat it, but any course work enrolled in after that initial failure and before the Qualifying Examination is passed in its entirety will be considered to be remedial and will not count as doctoral course work.

For example, if a student should fail the Qualifying Examination in November, the courses taken during the fall semester will count toward the degree. However, courses taken during the following spring semester would not, even if the student passes the Qualifying Examination before the end of that spring semester (i.e., in April). After an initial failure (in whole or part), if permission for a retake is granted, the Qualifying Examination must be retaken at the end of the next regular semester of full-time enrollment, but not later than two semesters after the failure (including the summer semester).

The School of Music Doctoral Qualifying Examinations are offered each semester at the same time:

Fall:	the first full week in November
Spring:	the first full week in April
Summer:	the three successive Saturdays following the 4th of July

Exact dates and times are determined by the graduate adviser and are publicized as soon as possible. Students must register for the exam two months (minimum) prior to taking the exam by calling 601-266-5363.

Jury Requirements/Final Examinations: Doctoral Degrees

Students who are enrolled in MUP Private Lessons in their principal applied area and who are seeking the Doctor of Musical Arts degree with emphasis in performance must perform a jury for the appropriate applied faculty. All other doctoral students enrolled in MUP Private Lessons must perform a final examination for the applied teacher. At the finish of each semester and summer term, the applied teacher must complete a "Final Jury/Examination Form" for each student and file it with the academic adviser. Students enrolled in applied music who do not take a final examination or a jury will receive the grade "I" or "F." All grades of "I" must be completed by the end of the next semester (excluding summer term). See Grading System in this Bulletin.

The applied teacher must record and submit any exception to this policy to the coordinator of graduate studies; signatures of all appropriate area faculty must be included on this form.

Comprehensive Examinations: Doctoral Degrees

At the completion of all course work and other required examinations, the doctoral student is required to successfully complete a written comprehensive examination in the student's area of specialization, music theory, and music history. The examination in the student's area of specialization will be prepared and graded by the student's committee members from that area. The examinations in music theory and history will be prepared and graded by the appropriate area faculty. The candidate's committee members representing music history and theory will deliver the recommendation of each of those areas to the full committee. The full committee will meet to discuss the examination and recommend a grade of "pass" or "fail" for each area (specialization, music theory, music history). This meeting will be held during (or before) the week of final examinations for the fall and spring semesters. In those instances where the comprehensive examination is taken during the summer semester, this meeting will be held within the first three weeks of the fall semester. In any case, the coordinator of graduate studies must receive results of the comprehensive examination in time to notify the university registrar and the Graduate School no later than the last day for presenting signed dissertations to the Graduate School.

When it is determined that the comprehensive examination is unsatisfactory, in whole or in part, the student may be granted a second examination. The examination must be retaken within one year of the first, and the student will be required to repeat only those sections of the examination judged to be unsatisfactory. It is strongly recommended that the student confer with his/her committee members and other appropriate area faculty for suggestions and/or assistance in preparation for this repeat examination. If the second examination is determined to be unsatisfactory, in whole or in part, the student cannot earn a doctoral degree in music or music education at The University of Southern Mississippi.

The purpose of this comprehensive examination is to evaluate the student's ability to analyze and synthesize material from a variety of sources and to communicate that knowledge in written form. Success in course work does not guarantee success on the comprehensive examination. Most students will need to undertake a serious program of independent study and preparation in addition to any or all required course work in order to complete the comprehensive examination successfully. Doctoral students should consult their major professor and the coordinator of graduate studies regarding examination policies beyond those listed in the Bulletin.

The School of Music Doctoral Comprehensive Examinations are offered each semester at the same time:

Fall:	the first full week in November
Spring:	the first full week in April
Summer:	the three successive Saturdays following the 4th of July

Exact dates and times are determined by the graduate adviser and are publicized as soon as possible.

Students must register for the exam two months (minimum) prior to taking the exam by calling 601-266-5363.

Oral Defense: Doctoral Degrees

After the dissertation has been accepted and after all required course work has been completed, but at least four weeks before the candidate is scheduled to receive the degree, a final oral defense of the dissertation and related fields will be conducted by the student's advisory committee and any other faculty members designated by the Graduate Dean. The examination will be open to any member of the graduate faculty.

Advisory Committee: Doctoral Degrees

Early in the first term of full-time residency or before nine (9) hours of graduate credit have been earned, the student, and the student's major professor, select those faculty who will serve as the student's advisory committee. The advisory committee must be appointed before one takes the Qualifying Examination.

The major professor and the student shall develop a planning sheet of course work based upon Qualifying Examination information together with course requirements. In those cases where a student is required to take additional course work beyond the minimum required by the degree, the advisory committee will counsel the student and plan the program of studies.

Recital Requirements:

The student must ascertain that all members of the advisory committee can attend before scheduling a recital.* At least fourteen days before the recital, the student should remind the members of the committee by issuing a written invitation to each. Doctoral recitals shall not be scheduled to occur during the week of final examinations before scheduling a recital.

If recitals are required by the student's degree plan, the advisory committee must:

- 1) Approve the repertoire, attend the recital, and grade the performance as Satisfactory (S) or Unsatisfactory (U)
- 2) This grade, indicating the majority opinion of the advisory committee, must be recorded on the Graduate Examination Report and submitted to the academic adviser.
- 3) Should a recital be canceled or postponed until a succeeding semester, the recital will be graded "E" (course in progress). When the grade of "E" is given, the student must re-register for the course and receive a letter grade for that course.
- 4) Should a recital be judged Unsatisfactory, another recital, at a date determined by the advisory committee, must take place.
- 5) A student who receives two grades of Unsatisfactory in meeting degree recital requirements will not be allowed to continue as a candidate.

*When all members of a committee cannot attend a conducting degree recital, the concert will be videotaped. At a date following the concert, committee members will meet as a group. At that time, the Committee will view the tape and evaluate the degree recital. The chairperson of the advisory committee must be present at both the concert and the video viewing.

Dissertation

- A. The dissertation topic must be approved by the student's major professor and advisory committee and must be an original and significant contribution to knowledge in the chosen field. The Human Subjects Protection Review Committee must also approve the topic.
- B. Once a topic has been approved, the student must enroll in MUS 797, MED 797, MUS 898, or MED 898 in each semester/term until the degree is completed.
- C. A separate publication outlining University requirements concerning the preparation of dissertations is available in the Graduate School.
- D. Additionally, instructions specific to the development of an approved topic in Music (see required pamphlet "Prospectus Guide for the Doctor of Musical Arts degree") or Music Education must be followed. These may be obtained from the graduate adviser.

Documents

The doctoral student must be sure that a number of documents are filed with the Graduate School. Please see "Documents-Doctoral Degree Requirements," this Bulletin.

Residency

Students must meet the residency requirements specified in this Bulletin.
Continuous Enrollment Agreement.

Degree Plans

Doctor of Musical Arts Degree

Performance and Pedagogy (all areas except Conducting and Composition)

Candidacy Audition*

All students must audition for the appropriate area faculty (generally, taped auditions are not acceptable.) This audition must be deemed Satisfactory before one can be accepted into the School of Music (i.e., before completing nine (9) hours of graduate work). Early auditions are encouraged, and a high level of performance proficiency is expected.

*In lieu of a candidacy audition, with the approval of the School of Music Graduate Committee, students who will complete the Master of Music degree in Performance at USM may use their graduate recital. The appropriate faculty must attend the recital, and the printed program must state the total purpose of the concert, e.g., "This recital is given in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the degree Master of Music in Performance, and it also serves as an audition for acceptance into the Doctor of Musical Arts curriculum in the School of Music." The student must begin doctoral study within one year of this audition.

In all instances other than those in bold-face below, the audition must be at least thirty minutes in length and must include three works of contrasting style, preferably representing three different periods in music. (Repertory lists with representative works are available upon request. Write: (instrument) professor, School of Music, The University of Southern Mississippi, Box 5081, Hattiesburg, MS 39406-5081).

Brass Performance: For those majoring in brass performance, the candidacy audition must be a full recital for the USM brass faculty.

Percussion Performance: For those majoring in percussion performance, the applicant should demonstrate proficiency on timpani, on mallet keyboards, and should perform a multiple-percussion performance.

Piano Performance: For those majoring in piano performance, the audition must be a full recital, memorized, performed before the piano faculty; it must include works from at least three different periods in music (e.g., Baroque, Classical, Romantic, Impressionist, or Contemporary). The faculty may select portions from the repertoire submitted.

Voice Performance: Voice performance majors must demonstrate, by audition, (1) advanced vocal technique; (2) good diction in Italian, French, German, and English; and (3) good vocal quality and musicianship. The repertoire must be memorized and include (1) an aria from opera or oratorio; (2) a seventeenth- or eighteenth-century Italian song or aria; (3) a German Lied; (4) a French Melodie; and (5) a song in English.

Special requirement, Voice Performance: The student's transcript(s) must show grades of C or better in at least one course in diction for singers and in two years of foreign language: German, French, or Italian (may include any combination of those languages). Students lacking these will be required to pass such courses in addition to the requirements for the degree. In lieu of course work, satisfactory performance on language exams, administered by the USM Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, is acceptable.

All D.M.A. Areas Except Conducting and Composition

The D.M.A. student will be required to take MUS 500, 702, 731, 732, and 898. The remainder of the course work will be determined in light of the student's qualifying examination, entrance audition, his or her interests and/or professional goals, and the counsel of the major professor and graduate advisory committee. In planning this program, the following minimum distribution of graduate courses (including master's degree work) is required: thirty (30) semester hours in performance music studio study and recitals, fifteen (15) semester hours in music history and literature, nine (9) semester hours in music theory, and the remainder of the program in approved electives which may include six (6) semester hours in a cognate field of study. A 3.0 GPA is required for graduation. Three recitals will be required in addition to the entrance audition. One must be a solo recital, one a lecture recital, and the third chosen from the following options: (a) performance of a concerto with orchestra, (b) performance of a major role in an opera, (c) performance of a major role in an oratorio, (d) a full-length recital of chamber music, or (e) a second solo recital. (Note: To use options “a” through “d,” permission of the student’s advisory committee must be received before the semester in which the event will occur.) As a general rule, not more than one doctoral recital may be presented by a candidate during any academic term, nor more than two during any nine-month period. Rare exceptions will be permitted, but under rigidly controlled procedures. See the graduate adviser for details.

Research Tools

One language will be required in the degree. (For specifics, see General Degree Requirements, Foreign Language, in this Bulletin.) Others may be required by the major professor and Graduate advisory committee.

The D.M.A. dissertation, required for completion of the degree, consists of two parts. Part I must be a written thesis giving evidence of the candidate’s ability to make a scholarly investigation of limited scope. Part II must include all recital programs, concert programs, and program notes presented during the student’s residency. D.M.A. students, Performance and Pedagogy (all areas except Conducting and Composition) may choose an alternative to the traditional dissertation requirement. This “Track 2” option is only available with the major professor’s and advisory committee’s approval. See the graduate adviser for further information.

Conducting Area

Acceptance of a prospective student into the D.M.A. program in the conducting area requires a previously earned master’s degree in music or music education. The conducting faculty must be satisfied that the student is qualified to pursue the D.M.A. at the University of Southern Mississippi.

Students applying for entrance into the D.M.A. program in the conducting area must:

- a) provide an application that includes a current resume; a repertoire list, specifying works conducted in performance; three letters of recommendation which center on the applicant’s conducting abilities; a video tape of a rehearsal conducted by the applicant; and a video or audio tape of a performance conducted by the applicant.
- b) complete an interview and an audition. After review of the application by the conducting faculty, the applicant may be invited to an interview-audition on campus. It will include 1) a session with the conducting faculty to assess one’s musical proficiencies and 2) a rehearsal of an appropriate university ensemble to assess one’s rehearsal technique.

In the interview, the applicant will demonstrate the following:

- a) musicality, preferably by showing proficiency as a performer on a standard orchestral or band instrument, on a standard keyboard instrument, or as a singer;
- b) keyboard proficiency above the basic level in technique, musicianship, and open score reading;
- c) a high degree of competence in ear-training and sight-singing;
- d) thorough knowledge of the traditional orchestral and band instruments and their transpositions;
- e) acquaintance with a broad range of appropriate repertoire from various periods;
- f) detailed knowledge of works from the applicant’s repertoire list.

The audition, a rehearsal, will use repertoire selected in consultation with the appropriate faculty and will last for approximately thirty minutes. The applicant’s competence in effective gestural and verbal communication will be assessed. For applicants admitted to the program with deficiencies in any of the above, no degree credit will be granted for any required remedial work.

The D.M.A. student will be required to take MUS 500, 702, 731, 732, and 898. Also required are MED 731, 732, 733, 825, and MUP 896, 897. The remainder of the course work will be determined in light of the student’s qualifying examination, entrance interview-audition, interests and/or professional goals, and the counsel of the major professor and graduate advisory committee. In planning this program, the following minimum distribution of graduate courses (including master’s degree work) is required: thirty (30) semester hours in performance, conducting, and recitals, fifteen (15) semester hours in music history and literature, nine (9) semester hours in music theory, and six (6) hours of approved electives which may include a cognate field of study (a course in foundations of music education is recommended).

Recitals: Two concerts and a lecture recital will be required. Repertoire for these concerts must be approved in advance by the student’s advisory committee. When practical, the repertoire will include works for both vocal and instrumental components. As a general rule, not more than one doctoral concert/recital may be presented by a candidate during any semester nor more than two during any nine-month period. Rare exceptions will be permitted, but only under rigidly controlled procedures. See your advisory committee for details.

Satisfactory competence in English and German, French or Italian is required for candidacy. Competence in a foreign language can be demonstrated by:

- a) completing three semesters of an undergraduate-level language course with a grade of B or higher;

- b) completing two semesters of a graduate-level course in German or French in reading for research with a grade of C or higher.

Note: Credit for graduate courses in foreign languages will not be granted toward the degree.

The D.M.A. dissertation, required for completion of the degree, consists of two parts.

Part I must be a written thesis that is an original and significant contribution to the knowledge of the field; it must give evidence of the candidate's ability to make a scholarly investigation of limited scope. Part II must include all recital programs, concert programs, and program notes presented during the student's residency.

Composition Area

Acceptance of a prospective student into the D.M.A. program in the composition area assumes a previously earned master's degree in composition or the equivalent, provided the composition faculty is satisfied that the student is qualified to pursue the D.M.A. at the University of Southern Mississippi. A high level of proficiency in composition and extensive knowledge of literature are expected.

Students applying for entrance into the D.M.A. program in the composition area must submit a portfolio containing representative scores and/or recordings of their compositions prior to the first term of enrollment at the University of Southern Mississippi.

The D.M.A. student will be required to take MUS 500, 702, 731, 732, and 898. The remainder of the program will be determined in the light of the student's portfolio evaluation, his or her qualifying examination, his or her interests and/or professional goals, and the counsel of the major professor and graduate advisory committee. In planning this program, the following minimum distribution of graduate courses (including master's degree work) is required: Thirty-nine (39) semester hours in composition and music theory, fifteen (15) semester hours in music history and literature, six (6) semester hours in a related field of study, and the remainder of the program in approved electives.

The student will write compositions totaling at least two (2) hours performing time. Up to thirty (30) minutes previously written compositions may be accepted as part of these two hours. Compositions will be for orchestra, band, chorus, ensembles, and soloists demonstrating competence in writing for all orchestral and band instruments as well as for the solo voice. The music should encompass levels of difficulty from junior high school to professional standards. The composer will write commentaries for each work, including program notes and rehearsal suggestions. All works, including parts, must be in duplicative format.

One recital of the composer's works will be given, with the composer commenting on each composition.

One language will be required, chosen from French, German, or Italian.

The D.M.A. dissertation, required for completion of the degree, will consist of the commentaries, program notes, and a full score of a work composed during the student's doctoral study.

Doctor of Music Education Degree

Doctor of Philosophy in Music Education Degree

General requirements for the Doctor of Philosophy and Doctor of Music Education (the Doctor of Music Education general requirements are the same as the Doctor of Education degree) are found in another section of this Bulletin. The College of The Arts further stipulates the following requirements.

Admission: See "Admission Requirements" and "Acceptance," a, b, e, f, g, and h (in this Bulletin). One must possess a master's degree in music with state licensure and at least three years of successful teaching experience (K-12).

Research Tools: A candidate for the Doctor of Music Education degree is required to demonstrate proficiency in statistics or computer science; at the discretion of the student's Graduate advisory committee, the candidate may be required to demonstrate a reading knowledge of one modern foreign language. The School of Music prescribes the following sequence for the statistics requirement: REF 602, REF 761, REF 762. Candidates for the Doctor of Philosophy degree in Music Education must comply with the language requirements as specified in the School of Music Doctoral Handbook. Further research tools for Ph.D. candidates will be determined by the candidate's advisory committee.

Degree Requirements

The following courses are required: REF 601 (or equivalent), MUS 702 (or equivalent), MED 755, 825, 826, and 898. The remaining course work will be determined by the candidate's Qualifying Examination, his or her interests, and the counsel of the major professor and Graduate advisory committee. In planning this program, the following minimum distribution of graduate courses (including master's degree work) is required:

Thirty (30) semester hours in music education, nine (9) semester hours in music history and literature, nine (9) semester hours in music theory, nine (9) semester hours in professional education, three (3) semesters in studio performance study, and the remainder of the program in approved electives. A 3.0 GPA is required for graduation. Although this Bulletin states that eighty-four (84) semester hours are required for doctoral degrees, it should be clearly understood that some candidates will be unable to receive a degree on the basis of this minimum. The distinction implied by the degree and the traditions related to it require comprehensive knowledge and demonstration of a high degree of proficiency in the major field and related areas of study as well as the ability to conduct advanced research.

Continuous Enrollment Requirement.

Department of Theatre and Dance

Francis X. Kuhn, Chair
Hattiesburg, MS 39406-5052
(601) 266-4994

Amacker, Hayes, Hill, Judd, Kuhn, Mullican, Nielsen, Prieur,*

Associate Graduate Faculty*

The University of Southern Mississippi Department of Theatre and Dance is an accredited member of the National Association of Schools of Theatre. Theatre requirements are in accordance with the published regulations of this Association.

The Department of Theatre and Dance offers programs leading to the Master of Fine Arts degree.

Continuous Enrollment Requirement: Students must meet the requirement specified in the front section of this Bulletin.

To be eligible for admission, a student must have a bachelor's degree and have completed a minimum of twenty-one (21) semester hours of undergraduate course work in theatre or theatre related areas. Those who do not meet the minimum entrance requirements may be admitted but will be expected to take undergraduate courses to cover deficiencies. It should be emphasized that admission to the Graduate School does not imply acceptance of the student as a candidate for a graduate degree. (See general admission requirements and procedures as set forth in this Bulletin.)

Upon being admitted into a graduate program, the student will be assisted by the department graduate coordinator in selecting an appropriate graduate advisory committee composed of three faculty members, one of whom will serve as major professor.

Before the end of the first week of classes, an entrance interview and audition/ portfolio review is required of all students entering a master's program.

Master of Fine Arts Degree in Theatre

The objective of the Master of Fine Arts curriculum is to develop the educated performer by offering sound theory and intensive practical training simultaneously. Students in the Master of Fine Arts programs will elect a plan of study with specialization in one of the following areas:

(1) directing (2) performance, or Design and Technical Theatre.

Regular admission to a Master of Fine Arts program requires: (1) the submission of Graduate Record Examination scores; (2) an undergraduate grade point average of at least 3.0 in the undergraduate major area or on the last 60 hours attempted; (3) acceptable performance audition or portfolio evaluations; (4) three strong letters of recommendation, which should address the applicant's academic preparation in the area of theatre; and (5) successful personal interviews. The letters of recommendation should be sent to the department. Members of all under represented groups are strongly encouraged to apply. Performance students will be required to demonstrate their proficiency in "Showcase" performance during the first semester in residence. Design emphasis students must present a portfolio for review by the faculty prior to the initial registration. If no portfolio is available, a student may be admitted on a conditional basis until an acceptable minimum proficiency is determined.

Proficiency reviews will be required of all M.F.A. candidates at the conclusion of their second semester in residence.

The Master of Fine Arts program normally requires three years of full-time graduate study and the completion of a minimum approved program of sixty (60) hours with at least 18 hours of course work at the 600 level or higher. A 3.0 GPA is required for graduation. It is recommended that the M.F.A. student spend at least one summer as a member of the Repertory Theatre program. The candidate will satisfactorily complete a creative project in his major area of emphasis and defend it orally before the Theatre Arts faculty.
