How to use the technology in Classroom 101

When using a Laptop

1. Turn on the projector with remote (labeled Panasonic).
2. Plug in HDMI cable that is on the desk. (Cable labeled laptop).
3. On the projector remote, select the HDMI input (6).
4. On the switch box (3X1 box) located on the right outer side of the podium, input 1 should be selected.

When using a VGA input

- Plug in the VGA cable (cable will have yellow tape on it).
- On the projector remote, press the computer button (1).

When using it with IVN Equipment

- Plug Y splitter cable (cable will have yellow tape on it).
- On projector remote, press the computer button (1)

When using the Desktop

1. Turn on the projector with remote (labeled Panasonic).
2. On the projector remote (labeled Panasonic), select the HDMI input (6).
3. On the switch box (3X1 Box) located on the right outer side of the podium, input 2 should be selected.

When using the IVN equipment

1. Turn on the projector with remote (labeled Panasonic).
2. Turn on TV monitor (with remote labeled LG TV)
3. Turn on IVN Equipment (with remote labeled Cisco)
4. On the projector remote, select HDMI input (6).
5. On the switch box (3X1 box) located on the right outer side of the podium, input 2 should be selected.
6. To make a call, press green (phone) button then type in the IP address, holding down the 1 button with give you a dot (.).
7. To show your PowerPoint presentation, press the button that looks like a house. Select Presentation, select PC (or select no Presentation).
   IVN EQUIPMENT MUST BE TURNED ON FIRST BEFORE THE DESKTOP COMPUTER IS TURNED ON.

PLEASE NOTE (IMPORTANT): The projector has to be on first before you turn on the computer. If the computer display is not showing on the projector, PLEASE RESTART THE COMPUTER.