

LARRY A. BOWMAN - BIO

Larry A. Bowman is Senior Director of Stadium Operations and Security for the Atlanta Braves. In this position he oversees multi-million dollar game, ballpark expense and parking budgets; supervision of several hundred employees and major contractors; initiation and finalization of major game and service related contracts; site and player security; game operations; logistics, life safety and support services; crisis communication/management and the implementation of Major League Baseball policies and procedures.

In addition to knowledge gleaned from several MLB playoff games, All Star Games and World Series Larry's venue experience also includes Super Bowls, NASCAR, ECHL and the Centennial Olympic Games. Prior to his current nineteen year tenure with the Atlanta Braves, Larry had established a stand out career in arena management and municipal government.

Larry received his Bachelor of Arts degree from North Carolina A & T State University in Political Science. As a CIC Fellow, Larry matriculated through the political science/public policy Ph. D program of The Ohio State University.

Born in the Bronx borough of New York City, Larry has served on several boards and commissions and addressed many major conferences sponsored by entities such as the Sports Business Journal and the Worldwide Convention and Business Forum.

Larry's interests include Bible study fellowship, physical fitness, sports, movies and creative writing.

Larry and his lovely wife, Claudia, make their home in Alpharetta, Georgia.