ABOUT ATTORNEY ANNA RUSH

A Hattiesburg native, Anna returned home from Washington after years of working on Capitol Hill as part of a legislative team for a United States Congressman to practice law. She quickly built a foundation of success in the practice of child and family law, divorce, personal injury, and criminal law. In 2017 Anna was appointed by Mayor Toby Barker to the position of Assistant Prosecutor for the City of Hattiesburg. She maintains a strong presence in the community, holding leadership positions on several boards including, Pine Belt Young Professionals, Chair of 100 years of Women's Suffrage Celebration, South Central Mississippi Bar Association, Mississippi Legal Services, and Give and Take Kitchen.
