ROADMAP TO CERTIFICATION
DuBard Association Method®

1. Complete bachelor’s degree (master’s degree optional at this point.)
2. Complete basic course
3. Complete 60 hours of supervised practicum
4. IMSLEC requirements for teaching level met
5. Take the Alta exam to become a CALP
6. National practitioner certification achieved
7. Complete master’s degree (if not already)
8. Complete additional coursework and practicum to meet the standards for therapy level
9. Take the Alta exam to become a CALT
10. National therapy certification achieved

For more information on professional development through DuBard School for Language Disorders, visit usm.edu/dubard