About the Conductor…

John Flanery is in his first year as assistant director of choral activities at the University of Southern Mississippi. At Southern Miss, he teaches undergraduate choral conducting and choral methods, choral literature, directs the Concert Choir and the Southern Miss Gulf Coast Civic Chorale, and assists with many other ensembles and duties. Recently he finished his coursework on his D.M.A. in choral conducting at the University of Kentucky. While in Lexington, he was the conductor of the University Choristers, assistant conductor of the Chorale and Men’s Chorus, and coach of the male a cappella group, the acoUstiKats. Under his leadership, the acoUstikats were chosen in 2006 to perform at the Kentucky Music Educators Convention. He holds a Masters degree in Choral Conducting from the University of Kentucky and a Bachelor’s degree in Music Education from Briar Cliff University in Sioux City, Iowa. As a high school music educator in the state of Iowa for nine years, John conducted concert choirs, madrigal dinners, show choirs, jazz choirs, and many other ensembles. John is a regular clinician and judge throughout the Midwest and Southeastern United States.
