NSSE 2019

In the Spring 2019 semester, the university participated in the NSSE survey. First year and senior students were surveyed on topics related student engagement. Throughout the Fall 2019 semester, presentations of the data were completed to inform the campus community of areas of success and opportunities of growth. All NSSE reports have been published to the IR website. https://intir.usm.edu/campus/MM_Comparison_Data/M2_NSSE.html (SOAR Credentials)

FSSE

On March 24th, faculty will be receiving an email from fsse@fsse.org to complete a survey on student engagement. There will be a couple of follow up reminder emails throughout the following weeks to encourage participation in the survey.

Course Evaluations

The University will be using a new platform for course evaluations this semester! Students will still have to complete their course evaluations to view their grades early; however, the results will be displayed differently and automatically integrated into Digital Measures. More information will be coming out soon.
