

Jeffrey Coggin, Ph.D.

HCD Ph.D. Alumni - Class of 2020

DISSERTATION TITLE:

Self-Regulated Learning Instruction's Relationships with Teacher Subject Area, Teacher Beliefs, and Teacher Efficacy

Chair: Dr. Quincy Brown

EDUCATIONAL EXPERIENCE:

Bachelor's Degree

Business Management
The University of Southern Mississippi, 1992

Master's Degree

Business Administration
Mississippi State University, 1994

Management
The University of Nebraska-Lincoln, 2008

Doctoral Degree

Human Capital Development
The University of Southern Mississippi, 2020

Dr. Coggin is currently the Senior Aerospace Science Instructor for the Heritage High School Air Force JROTC Program in Maryville, Tennessee. In this position, Dr. Coggin is responsible for developing citizens of character dedicated to serving their country and community. Dr. Coggin also serves on the Heritage High School's Professional Development and Leadership teams. He has nearly 25 years of active duty service in both the United States Air Force and the Mississippi Air National Guard. During this time, he has served as a Personnel Specialist, Master Technical Training Instructor, Financial Management Officer, and commanded a Comptroller Squadron.

AWARDS & RECOGNITION:

- Awarded the Bronze Star while serving a year-long tour as the Deputy Comptroller for the Multinational Corps in Baghdad, Iraq
- Served with the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO)
- Served as Chief of Leadership and Communication Studies at the Defense Financial Management and Comptroller School (DFM&CS)
- Airforce Air War College Graduate
- Air Force Squadron Officers' School Graduate
- Community College of the Air Force Graduate
- Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College Graduate