

Chiquila Dolison

HCD Ph.D. Alumna

DISSERTATION TITLE:

An Exploration of the Two-Generation Approach for Single Mother Degree or Certificate Attainment

EDUCATIONAL EXPERIENCE:

Bachelor's Degree

Sociology
Whichita State University, 2007

Master's Degree

Economic Development
The University of Southern Mississippi

RESEARCH INTERESTS:

- Customer Experience
- Human Capital Development
- Holistic Family Workplaces
- Finance
- Administrative Support

Chiquila Dolison, known as “Chi Chi” to the Department of Human Capital Development, serves as the Administrative Associate for the Senior Pastor at Venture Church in Hattiesburg, MS. In this role, Chiquila is responsible for sermon transcription and distribution, coordinating lunches and trips, creating purchase orders, processing contributions, preparing reports, research projects as assigned, and providing operational support as needed to all areas of Venture Church.

AWARDS AND RECOGNITION:

- Over 15 years of customer service and administrative support experience
- Experience in multiple industries such as: finance, retail, government, postsecondary education, and nonprofit religious organization
- Regularly attends conferences to support her knowledge and professional development
- Participated in the Caribbean Studies Abroad Program
- Senior Honors College Cum Laude graduate and Ronald E. McNair Scholar
- As a member of the McNair Scholars Program, she wrote and presented a thesis titled, "The Effects of Welfare Programs on Single Mothers and Children."
- Earned the Workplace Learning and Performance Institute's Training and Development certificate
- Completed the Graduate School's Professionals in Preparation (PIP) Program
- Inducted into the National Society for Leadership and Success at the University of Southern Mississippi