TRAVEL REMINDERS:

- Valid photo ID will be required to pick up your camper.
- Be sure all medications are clearly labeled in their original packaging and include instructions. These should be packed in a zip-lock bag labeled with the camper’s name and easily accessible so they can be given to counselor upon arrival.
- Flights
 - Campers are required to have a reserved airline ticket; please no standby flights.
 - A case-by-case basis will be discussed for those needing to fly out the day after camp conclusion.
 - Please be aware that some airlines charge for extra or overweight luggage; please send money with your camper accordingly, as airlines generally do not accept payment by phone for these services.
 - Airport pick-up and drop-off procedures must be carefully followed to provide your camper with a safe and positive traveling experience:
 - Marine Education Center staff will wear a MEC logo shirt and nametag when meeting arrivals and escorting departures.
 - Upon arrival and departure, parents will be notified that their camper has arrived/departed safety.
