

NEW STUDENT ORIENTATION

10:00
to 10:50

Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion at Southern Miss

Diversity, equity, and inclusion are core values at Southern Miss and important parts of the Southern Miss Creed. Join this conversation to learn about different campus areas and offices that support our commitment to diversity and work to enhance inclusion through the University.

Healthy and Well in Your First Year

Southern Miss offers many resources to help you stay healthy during your first year. From stress management to health care on campus to navigating life under COVID-19, we are here for you! Join this discussion to learn more about what we offer.

11:00
to 11:50

Classroom Success at Southern Miss

You did well in the classroom before Southern Miss - how can you set yourself up for success here? Join this conversation to hear about different free resources you can use in your first year here to earn your best grades in your classes and start your college career at Southern Miss right.

Southern Miss Online: Success Strategies

Taking classes online has been very popular in recent years, and with COVID-19, most students will have some classes that do not meet in person this fall. What do you need to know to be successful online at Southern Miss? Join this discussion to learn how to navigate your online classes and more.

1:00
to 1:50

Getting Involved at Southern Miss

Being involved in campus organizations and student life is one of the best parts of the college experience. What will that look like in your freshman year? Hop in this conversation to talk with people about your options and how you can get involved, meet other students, build your resume, and have fun at Southern Miss.

Navigating a PWI as a Student of Color

Southern Miss prides itself on its commitment to diversity and inclusivity. As a student of color, we know that attending a predominately white institution (PWI) can pose unique challenges, and it may be different from your experiences in high school. Join this conversation to hear from other USM students of color about their experiences and ask questions about life at Southern Miss.

2:00
to 2:50

Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion at Southern Miss

Diversity, equity, and inclusion are core values at Southern Miss and important parts of the Southern Miss Creed. Join this conversation to learn about different campus areas and offices that support our commitment to diversity and work to enhance inclusion through the University.

Healthy and Well in Your First Year

Southern Miss offers many resources to help you stay healthy during your first year. From stress management to health care on campus to navigating life under COVID-19, we are here for you! Join this discussion to learn more about what we offer.

3:00
to 3:50

Classroom Success at Southern Miss

You did well in the classroom before Southern Miss - how can you set yourself up for success here? Join this conversation to hear about different free resources you can use in your first year here to earn your best grades in your classes and start your college career at Southern Miss right.

Southern Miss Online: Success Strategies

Taking classes online has been very popular in recent years, and with COVID-19, most students will have some classes that do not meet in person this fall. What do you need to know to be successful online at Southern Miss? Join this discussion to learn how to navigate your online classes and more.

4:00
to 4:50

Getting Involved at Southern Miss

Being involved in campus organizations and student life is one of the best parts of the college experience. What will that look like in your freshman year? Hop in this conversation to talk with people about your options and how you can get involved, meet other students, build your resume, and have fun at Southern Miss.

Navigating a PWI as a Student of Color

Southern Miss prides itself on its commitment to diversity and inclusivity. As a student of color, we know that attending a predominately white institution (PWI) can pose unique challenges, and it may be different from your experiences in high school. Join this conversation to hear from other USM students of color about their experiences and ask questions about life at Southern Miss.

BREAKOUT SESSIONS