  - Gymnasium
    - No age restrictions, but the child must be supervised.
  - M.C. Johnson Natatorium*
    - For children 11 years of age and under, an adult must supervise and remain with the child at all times in the Natatorium.
    - For children 12 years of age and older, the adult may leave the Natatorium provided the child passes the swim test given by the lifeguard, but the adult must remain in the Payne Center at all times.

Lockers
- Due to concerns for our patron’s children and the privacy of other patrons, we have established the following policy:
  - Female patrons may not take a male child into the women’s locker room at any time. Likewise, a male patron may not take a female child into the men’s locker room at any time. If you need assistance concerning your child, please contact facility management at the Welcome Center.

*Special Note:
During special events (e.g., summer camps, Premier, Black & Gold Day, etc.), a child may be allowed into the Payne Center, as a spectator, with adult supervision. The child is restricted to the area in which the event is held and must remain with the adult at all times.
