Industry Advisory Council

Benefits for Active Participation

1. Receive invitation to events for networking opportunities leading to partnerships, long-term relationships and business prospects.

2. Collaborate with leading industry, government, and universities on key industry issues

3. Express your need, issues and concerns in the industry to shape and improve the quality of the graduates from USM that your company will hire

4. Provide an outside voice to the University administration relative to the CLTT multidisciplinary activities

5. Assist in recruiting and retaining students and faculty of the highest quality to provide premier education to your current and/or future employees

6. Access to customized roundtables to address your industry needs and/or interest.

7. Access to professors and students to assist in the assessment and research of logistics, trade and transportation needs of your company for cost saving and best practices

8. Interact with faculty and students of a unique master program in the southern region of United States that will support the needs of your company

9. Make decisions on the CLTT multidisciplinary activities to provide competitive advantage to the Gulf-region industry and government agencies

10. Learn technologies and practices implemented by other leaders with positive results that could be applied to your company.

11. Opportunity to give back and create a legacy by influencing the activities of the CLTT to better serve your industry.

12. Recognition for you and your company for your contributions to the CLTT activities