The mission of The College of Education and Psychology is to prepare and develop educators, researchers, mental health professionals, and information specialists while generating and disseminating knowledge that connects and advances individuals, communities, and society. Students develop knowledge and skills through exposure to exemplary teaching, research, and professional service.

THE COLLEGE DELIVERS ACADEMIC PROGRAMS THROUGH THE FOLLOWING SIX DEPARTMENTS:

Department of Child and Family Studies
- BS Child and Family Studies (with emphasis in Child Development or Family Relations)
- MS Child and Family Studies
- MS Marriage and Family Therapy
- Minor in Child and Family Studies

Department of Curriculum, Instruction, and Special Education
- BS Elementary Education
- BS Elementary Education with Dual Licensure in Special Education
- BS Elementary Education - Teacher Assistant Pathway
- BS Instructional Technology (with emphasis in Administrative Communication, Business Technology Education licensure, or Instructional Technology and Design)
- BS Special Education Jump Start to Alternate Route
- Master of Arts in Teaching Secondary Education
- MEd in Educational Curriculum and Instruction (Elementary Education)
- MEd in Dyslexia Therapy Education
- MEd in Special Education
- MS Instructional Technology
- EdS in Education (with major in Elementary Education or Special Education)
- PhD in Education (with major in Elementary Education or Special Education)
- PhD in Instructional Technology and Design
- Certificate in Gifted Education
- Certificate in Instructional Technology
Certificate in Teach Mississippi Institute
Minor in Instructional Technology and Design
Supplemental Endorsement in Computer Applications
Supplemental Endorsement in Pre-K

Department of Educational Leadership and School Counseling
- MEd in Educational Administration and Supervision (Building Level)
- MS in School Counseling and Guidance Services
- EdS in Educational Administration and Supervision (Building Level or District Level)
- EdD in Educational Administration and Supervision (Building Level or District Level)
- PhD in Educational Administration and Supervision (Building Level or District Level)
- Minor in Educational Administration
- Minor in School Guidance Counseling

School of Library and Information Science
- BA Library and Information Science
- MLIS (Licensure)
- MLIS (Non-Licensure)
- Certificate in Archives and Special Collection
- Certificate in Youth Services and Literature School Library Media Endorsement
- Minor in Library and Information Science

Department of Educational Studies and Research
- MEd in Higher Education (with emphasis in Student Affairs Administration)
- MS in Education (with emphasis in Educational Studies and Research)
- MS in Education (with emphasis in Social Justice)
- PhD in Education (with emphasis in Adult Education)

Department of Psychology
- BA Psychology
- BS Psychology
- MS Counseling Psychology
- PhD Counseling Psychology
- PhD Clinical Psychology
- PhD Experimental Psychology
- PhD School Psychology
- Minor in Psychology

WWW.USM.EDU/EDUCATION-PSYCHOLOGY
PHONE: 601.266.4568
AA/EOE/ADA I UC 70445.5023 6.14