Dean’s Corner

It is that time of year when we have so much to celebrate. The Southern Miss College of Nursing has just graduated another deserving class of nurses and I would like to thank all of our faculty and staff for your hard work this semester. The fall is an especially busy time and I appreciate the dedication you all have to our College. The holiday break is fast approaching and I know everyone is anxious for some time off to spend with loved ones. I am looking forward to a very exciting spring semester, which will include breaking ground on our new building! I hope that everyone has a wonderful break and I look forward to seeing you all in January of 2014!!
The SRNAs of the USM NAP held their Thanksgiving dinner to pause and be reminded of the holiday season. Additionally, the student’s of the inaugural class have completed the first year in the BSN-DNP program. They are preparing to enter the clinical phase of the program whereby they will be participating in the direct administration of anesthesia. January marks another milestone as we welcome the next 20 students into the program. Southern Miss…To The Top!
