Letters of Reference

Letters of reference from three (3) professionals, including two from doctorally prepared nurses and one from a current or recent employer, that speak to the applicant’s intellectual ability, academic potential, and professional achievement. Letters must be sent directly to the Graduate School.

Letters should specifically address the following:

A. The length and type of relationship with the applicant.
B. The applicant’s potential to develop, implement, and evaluate a program project
C. The leadership potential of the applicant at a regional, state or national level
D. The ability of the applicant to communicate in a scholarly manner, both orally and in writing
E. The ability of the applicant to be self-directed in learning
