CIS 603 - Management and Organization of Diverse Classrooms

3 hrs.

Develops knowledge, skills, and attitudes required for teaching students from diverse backgrounds, emphasizing classroom management, organization, and discipline.

CIS 700 - Seminar in Secondary Education

3 hrs.

An investigation of the major trends and objectives of the secondary school, with emphasis upon the disciplinary areas of the curriculum.

REF 632 - Assessing Student Outcomes

3 hrs.

Emphasizes selection and construction of assessment instruments and interpretation of results.

CIS 694 - Field Problems

3 hrs.

Prerequisite(s): Approval of the department chair. This course provides students with an opportunity to study local school problems in a field setting under the supervision of a graduate professor.

IT 645 - Computers in Education

3 hrs.

Prerequisite(s): Basic computer literacy. Examines the use of current and emerging computer technologies in education.

CIS 794 - Field Problems

3 hrs.
Prerequisite(s): Approval of department chair. This course provides students with an opportunity to study local school problems in a field setting under the supervision of a graduate professor.

REF 601 - Educational Research: Interpretation and Applications

3 hrs.

An orientation to the information, skills, and competencies necessary to conduct and interpret research in the behavioral sciences.

CIR 754 - Adolescent Literacy in the Content Areas

3 hrs.

Application of research to lesson planning, with emphasis on linking assessment, methods, materials, instruction, and interventions for adolescent literacy in the content areas.

CIS 708 - High School Curriculum

3 hrs.

An overview of the field of curriculum and instruction at the secondary-school level with special emphasis upon contemporary trends.

SPE 500 - The Psychology and Education of the Exceptional Individual

3 hrs.

An introduction to exceptional populations and procedures and policies relating to their education and citizenship.

CIS 570 - Curriculum in the Secondary School

2 hrs. (6 hrs. required)

A course which examines the present-day structure and nature of the secondary school curriculum.