Constitution and Bylaws for the

Rho Eta Alpha Chapter of the National Residence Hall Honorary (NRHH)
At the University of Southern Mississippi

Revised: May 2015
Article I: Structure

This organization shall be entitled the Rho Eta Alpha Chapter of the National Residence Hall Honorary, hereafter referred to as NRHH, of the National Association of College and University Residence Halls, Inc.

Article II: Purpose & Values

Section 1: The purpose of this organization shall be to provide recognition for those students living in residence halls who have been of outstanding service and who have provided important leadership in the advancement of the residence hall system. This organization values the four values of leadership, service, recognition and scholastics. To provide recognition for the professional staff that assist with growth of the residence hall community at the University of Southern Mississippi. To promote activities which encourage leadership qualities in residents.

Section 2: NRHH is a leadership-based honorary comprised of exemplary residential students who value recognition and service.

Article III: Membership

Section 1: Qualifications for nomination

A. Shall have resided in the residence halls for at least one full semester prior to the semester induction.
B. Shall reside in the residence halls during the semester of selection and for a minimum of one semester after induction.
C. Shall have completed a minimum of thirty (30) credit hours by the end of the semester of selection.
D. Shall be a student in good standing with the university and shall have a minimum 2.50 cumulative grade point average.
E. Shall have demonstrated outstanding service, participation, and leadership in the residence halls at The University of Southern Mississippi.

Section 2: Nomination Process

A. Membership drives should take place each fall and spring semesters, or as needed.
B. Applications will be made available to nominees in October and March, or as needed.
C. Nominations may be made by any method(s) determined by the NRHH Executive board and Advisor(s).
D. Nominations may be made by:
   1. RHA Executive Board Members and RHA members
   2. Members of the Rho Eta Alpha Chapter of the NRHH.
   3. Any Department of Residence Life professional faculty/staff member.
   4. Resident Assistants.
   5. Individuals may also submit nominations during open nominations.
Section 3: Selection Process
A. The Selection Committee will consist of the NRHH Executive Board, three active members of NRHH, and the advisor to the NRHH. The active membership will choose the three members that will participate on the committee.
B. The process of evaluation of the nomination and application forms will be left to the discretion of the Selection Committee.
C. The Selection Committee will meet to select new members during the first week of November and April, or as needed.
D. The induction ceremony will take place no later than the third week of November and April, or as needed.
E. The active membership of NRHH shall not exceed one percent of the total capacity of the residence halls.

Section 4: Types of Membership and Expectations
A. Active members shall be defined as those who are enrolled at the University of Southern Mississippi, living in a residence hall, are in good standing with the chapter, and chosen by the Selection Committee to recognize their meritorious service to the residence hall system. All active members shall be voting members of the chapter and receive honor cords upon graduation.
1. Any degree-seeking student (undergraduate and graduate) enrolled at the University of Southern Mississippi.
2. Top 1% living in the residence halls.
3. In order to maintain active membership, members must earn a set number of seven (7) participation points each semester. Points can be earned through attending general body meetings, submitting OTMs, and service projects.
4. Submit at least two (2) OTMs each semester.
5. Attend at least half the general body meetings in addition to Induction Ceremony per semester.
6. Active members shall have one vote.
7. Any exceptions must be submitted to the NRHH executive board in writing.
8. Must meet the requirements and expectations set by the executive board at the beginning of each semester. If any of these requirements are not met, it is up to the discretion of the NRHH executive board and advisor to put the member on probation.
   a. The probation period will follow one month following the month the requirements were not met, except for the summer months.
   b. Once an individual has shown dedication and commitment to NRHH according to their Chapter’s standards, they will become an NRHH member for life, but active membership can be taken away.
   c. Removal of active membership can occur if an active member has two unexcused absences from any of general body meetings in one semester school year. Absences do not carry over from year to year.
A. Membership Removal shall be used once a member has failed to contribute to the growth and development of their NRHH chapter and fails to meet expectations listed by their NRHH chapter. The following guidelines apply to the procedure of applying for Membership removal:
   a. The Removal Policy may be enacted if an Active member can no longer meet the Chapter membership expectations.
   b. If an Active member is removed, they no longer count towards the 1% membership cap
   c. The following guidelines apply to the procedure for the removal of an Active Member:
      1. The member and/or chapter must complete the NRHH Member Removal Application.
         I. This form can be obtained from the region’s AD-NRHH.
         II. The form must include the electronic signatures of the chapter President and chapter advisor.
         III. This form must be submitted electronically.
      2. The completed Member Removal application shall be submitted to the region’s AD-NRHH for approval.
      3. The amount of members for removal is up to the discretion of the chapter
      4. It is the right of the region’s AD-NRHH to deny requests for removal for reasons including, but not limited to:
         I. Submission of an incomplete application form
         II. The region’s AD-NRHH does not believe that sufficient measures have been taken by the chapter to address the member’s inactivity or ineligibility within the chapter prior to submission of the application.
      5. If the member and/or chapter wish to appeal the decision, they may appeal to the Regional AD-NRHH through written request as to why the Candidate deserves to continue as a member of NRHH.
A. Alumni members shall be defined as former active members from another University or former active members who have left the University or the residence hall system.
B. Early Alumni members shall be defined as those members who are still living on campus, but cannot meet chapter membership expectations. The following guidelines apply to the procedure of applying for early alumni membership status:
   1. The member and/or chapter must complete the early alumni membership application (contact your Regional AD-NRHH to obtain a copy) which shall include the signatures of:
Chapter President, Chapter Advisor, and chapter member for whom the form is being completed.

2. The completed early alumni membership application shall be submitted to the Regional AD-NRHH for approval.

3. The number of early alumni members a chapter shall be granted per academic year will not exceed ten percent of the chapter's membership cap (i.e.: if a chapter has a membership cap of 50, it will not be allowed more than 5 early alumni members approved per a year).

4. It is the right of the Regional AD-NRHH to deny requests for reasons including, but not limited to:
   a. The application form is incomplete.
   b. The Regional AD-NRHH does not believe that sufficient measures were taken by the chapter to address the member's inactivity with chapter business before submitting the application.
   c. The chapter has exceeded its allotted early alumni membership approvals for the year.

5. If the member and/or chapter wish to appeal the decision of the Regional AD-NRHH, they may appeal to the entire AD-NRHH board. The decision of the AD-NRHH board (consisting of an AD-NRHH from each region) shall be final.
   a. Each AD-NRHH shall have one vote
   b. A simple majority shall be necessary, with the NRHH Chair casting the tie-breaking vote when necessary.

A. Honorary members shall be defined as those who are chosen by the active body in recognition of outstanding service to the residence halls. Honorary members should be chosen infrequently. They shall have no vote, but shall be able to voice their ideas and opinions. The number of honorary members a chapter shall be able to induct per academic year will not exceed ten percent of the chapter's membership cap (i.e., if a chapter has membership cap of 50, it may induct up to 5 honorary members a year). These members do not count in the 1% cap.

Section 4: Membership Capacity

I. The total active membership of a chapter may include up to, but not more than, 1% of the total residence hall population that year, or 20 members, whichever is larger. The total 1% membership does not include alumni, early alumni or honorary members.

Section 5: NRHH Transfer Policy

I. NRHH members that are transferring schools at any educational level, including incoming graduate students and incoming doctoral students, are able to apply to have their NRHH membership transferred from their outgoing institution to their incoming institution.

II. Each NRHH chapter is able to accept/reject transfer members at their own discretion. If accepted, these members shall become active members of the new chapter. The Membership Transfer Policy must be outlined according to the following:
   a. The student applying to transfer their membership must be fully matriculated at the new institution.
   b. The student seeking to transfer their membership must contact the chapter president and advisor in writing detailing why they want to transfer their membership, how they benefitted their previous chapter and residence hall system, and how they hope to be involved in the new chapter.
   c. Each chapter is able to come up with their own process detailing how letters will be evaluated.
III. If approved, the student and/or new chapter must complete the membership transfer application.

IV. The membership transfer application may be obtained from the region’s AD-NRHH.

V. The membership transfer application shall include signatures from the following individuals:
   a. The incoming chapter’s President.
   b. The incoming chapter’s Advisor.
   c. The NRHH member who is seeking to transfer their membership.

VI. The completed application shall be submitted to the region’s ADNRHH for approval.

VII. It is the right of the region’s AD-NRHH to deny requests for reasons including, but not limited to:
   a. The application form is incomplete. b. Adding new member(s) puts the chapter over its member cap.

VIII. If the member and/or chapter wish to appeal the decision of the region’s AD-NRHH, they may appeal to the entire NNB. The decision of the NNB shall be final. In the event of an appeal to the NNB:
   a. Each AD-NRHH shall have one vote.
   b. A simple majority shall be necessary, with tie-breaking vote when necessary.
