Do you know an outstanding children’s librarian or media specialist?

Tell us about them!

The Kaigler-Lamont Award is awarded each year to a children’s or school librarian for distinguished accomplishments in promoting children’s reading in Mississippi schools and public libraries. The award is presented annually at The University of Southern Mississippi School of Library and Information Science Fay B. Kaigler Children’s Book Festival.

The winner of the Kaigler-Lamont Award receives:

- Free registration to the Children’s Book Festival
- Plaque
- $500 honorarium
- $500 in books for your library
