May 2016

Project SEARCH
The University of Southern Mississippi
Institute for Disability Studies

Congratulations to our 2016 Graduates!

We are accepting student applications for the new program year, beginning August 2016. Please contact us for additional information.

For additional information on the Project SEARCH national program, visit www.projectsearch.us.

For additional information on the Institute for Disability Studies at The University of Southern Mississippi, visit www.usm.edu/disability-studies.
We would like to thank the parents, friends and family; Aramark, Payne Center and Cook Library internship departments; Southern Miss student mentors and internship site supervisors; and Hattiesburg Vocational Rehabilitation and job coaches, Hattiesburg Public School District, City of Hattiesburg, MS Department of Developmental Disabilities, and the Institute for Disability Studies for all of your support.

If you have information or news you would like to include in the next newsletter, email information to jin.mcclendon@usm.edu by June 10.

Program Contact Information:
Jin Joo M. Crosby, Program Coordinator
Institute for Disability Studies
118 College Dr. #5163
Hattiesburg, MS 39406-0001
601.266.6037

Project SEARCH is a program of the Institute for Disability Studies (IDS) at The University of Southern Mississippi. Funding is provided through a grant from the Mississippi Council on Developmental Disabilities.
Community Participation: Special Olympics

The students participated in the south state Special Olympics hosted by Keesler Air Force Base. Several of our students placed first, receiving a gold medal.