

IDS Report Card FY 2016

The University of Southern Mississippi Institute for Disability Studies (IDS), Mississippi's University Center for Excellence in Developmental Disabilities (UCEDD), has been committed to enhancing the lives of Mississippians with disabilities for 40 years. This report reflects IDS' education, research and service efforts to support people with disabilities and their families from July 1, 2015 to June 30, 2016, in the current emphasis areas of housing, education/early intervention, health and recreation, and employment.

34
Programs and Projects
36
Faculty and Staff

32,774
Hours of Technical Assistance
7,589
People Assisted

1,691
Hours of Community Training/
Continuing Education

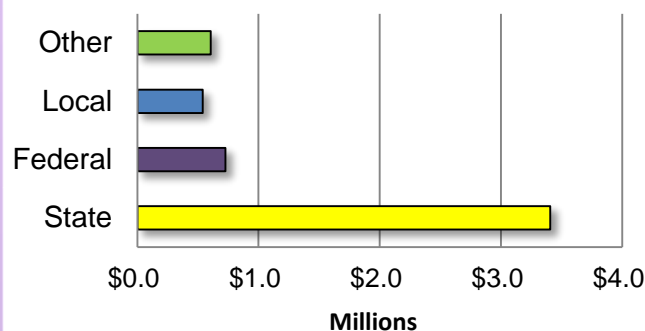

441
Hours of Training to 438
UCEDD Trainees
and University Students

Educating a Combined Total of 3,461
People

IDS is currently funded solely through external grants and contracts. In the past fiscal year, IDS received:

$5,275,116
in grants and contracts

Yielding 32 Research Activities

147
New Awareness
Materials
Developed Including 1
Journal Publication
7
Conference Presentations

and Continued
Distribution of 31
Existing Materials
Reaching
26,094
Individuals, Family
Members and Professionals

THE UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN MISSISSIPPI

Institute for Disability Studies

INSTITUTE FOR DISABILITY STUDIES
THE UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN MISSISSIPPI
GULF PARK CAMPUS