Definitions

Policy/Procedures

Appliances which are in the apartments must remain in place. Do not switch refrigerators from one apartment to another. During your check-in, you will be requested to sign a refrigerator and stove form that holds you responsible for that particular refrigerator and stove. These appliances cannot be changed unless they become defective, at which time they will be replaced by the management. However, we will remove a refrigerator from an apartment if the resident chooses to provide his/her own.
Review

The Director of Student Housing Administration is responsible for the review of this policy every four years (or whenever circumstances require immediate review).
