Student Authorization

Based on the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, also known as FERPA or the Buckley Amendment, a student's educational and financial records are private and confidential between the educational institution and the student. Your academic and financial records may only be released with your consent to any third party, including a family member.

By creating an Authorized User account, you are granting a third party access to the following academic and financial records.

- View academic class schedule
- View academic record
- View grades
- View admission status
- View financial aid
- View and make payments on student account
- View biographical information
- View general academic information

You have the right to remove this access at any time.

You have the primary responsibility as the student to maintain and communicate the important information to your desired third party.

Authorized Users

You may authorize a third party to review your academic and financial records and make payments on your student account. You can add up to two authorized users.

1. To create a new authorized user, click "Add New User".
2. To edit a current authorized user, click "Edit".
3. To delete a current authorized user, click "Delete".

The screenshot shows a table with columns for 'Edit', 'Delete', 'User ID', and 'Name'. A row is visible with '1' in the 'Edit' column, a trash icon in the 'Delete' column, 'P1737963' in the 'User ID' column, and 'Mama Eag' in the 'Name' column. Below the table are buttons for 'Add New User' and 'CANCEL'. A blue dialog box titled 'Message from webpage' is overlaid on the table, containing a yellow warning icon and the text 'Account created successfully. (20000,109)' with an 'OK' button.

Automatic email is generated to student and to new authorized user.

If the User ID is deleted by the student, another email is generated to both the student and the authorized user.

Email generated to new user.

to me

Dear Mama Eagle,

You have been granted a Southern Miss SOAR authorized user account by Seymour Eagle. The Authorized User account allows you to have access to the following information within SOAR for this student. Granting this access for SOAR does not allow the authorized user the same access via telephone or email.

- View academic class schedule
- View academic record
- View grades
- View admission status
- View financial aid
- View and make payments on student account
- View biographical information
- View general academic information

To access this information, log in to SOAR at www.soar.usm.edu using your login ID: P1737963. Contact the student to obtain your password. The student is responsible for all maintenance of the account, including email, password, and add or removal of the access. You will be notified by email when the student makes any changes to this account.

Welcome to the Southern Miss community.

Parent/Authorized User logs in to <https://soar.usm.edu> and must get Password from student.

Welcome to your SOAR Connection!

Hello Mama Eagle

Seymour Eagle has indicated that you may access his/her individual student information.

This access allows you to review this student's information; however, the student must make any changes on his/her record. The access also includes the ability to make payments on the student's account.

Student information is protected by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), and release or documentation of student information without the student's consent is prohibited. University personnel are not authorized to discuss specific student information.

This student created your login and password information. The login and password information will always be controlled by the student. Any changes in your ability to view this student's information should be addressed with the student.

If you need assistance or have questions, please email registrar@usm.edu

Explanation of Access

Admissions
 You can view your student's application for admission. You can view the status of the application, as well as materials received for admission evaluation and materials still needed for admission evaluation. Other viewable information includes your student's proposed major and the official test scores on file for your student.

Student Records
 You can view your student's grades, unofficial transcript, class schedule, advisement/degree progress report, registration holds, and transfer credits.

Financial Aid
 You may view the status of your student's financial aid application and view a list of any financial aid that may have been offered to your student (scholarships, loans, grants, or other awards). Parents are not allowed to accept, adjust, or decline any offers of financial aid; accepting, adjusting, or declining financial aid is the responsibility of the student. To view student account information, visit Student Financials.

Student Financials
 You can view your student's account information, including current charges and the minimum payment due. You do have the ability to make an online payment for your student. To view student financial aid information, visit Financial Aid.
