to enroll in _____, _____,
Course Prefix and Number Section#

for the _____ term through the Listener's License program.

I understand that

- Participants for the Listener's License program must be at least 16 years of age and/or a high school junior. There is no maximum age limit.
- Individuals enrolled in this program will not be allowed to take part in class discussions, testing, etc., unless participation is invited by the course instructor. Any disruption by the participant will result in forfeiture of all privileges of the Listener's License.
- There are no academic requirements placed on the participant since class attendance is not required, tests are not given, and academic credit is not awarded.
- A Listener's License card will be issued on a space-available basis. The tear-away portion of the card will be turned in to the instructor at the first class meeting.
- Students under disciplinary or academic suspension are ineligible to register for a Listener's License during the period of suspension.
- The Listener's License card will not permit a participant to check out books from the University library.
- Students of the English Language Institute (ELI) must receive written approval from the ELI manager before starting the enrollment process for a Listener's License.
- A $50 charge is associated with each course. Please make check payable to Southern Miss.
