VISITORS: Visitors to the University are eligible to purchase a parking permit for a set number of days. This permit allows you to park in all parking zones, except handicap, service areas, and no parking areas. It will automatically expire based on the number of days you purchase. ARAMARK, BARNES & NOBLEs: Outsource employees are eligible to purchase an annual parking permit while working at the University. This parking permit allows you to park in faculty/staff, commuter and open parking zones. You are also eligible for a temporary parking permit if necessary. CONTRACTOR/CONTRACTORS/ Vendors are eligible to purchase an annual parking permit while working at the University. This permit allows you to park in all parking zones, except handicap and no parking areas. You are also eligible for a temporary parking permit if necessary.

SPECIAL ACCOMMODATIONS: Individuals with permanent or temporary disabilities who require handicapped parking access may register for a handicapped parking permit. This permit allows parking in handicap spaces around campus. Registration for this permit requires submission of a copy of a state-issued handicapped placard or license plate registration. If the appropriate paperwork is not submitted at registration you will be given 48 hours to send the correct paperwork to Parking Management. If the appropriate paperwork is not received, you will be changed to a regular faculty/staff parking permit. If you need a loading/unloading permit in order to fulfill your job duties, please contact Parking Management.

Please select the appropriate parking permit below.

Online Permit Sales: Permit and Vehicle Selection

The Department of Parking Management is utilizing the latest technology for campus parking management. One of the major advantages includes the discontinuance of physical parking permits; now we register vehicles and give an ePermit with 'permission' for vehicles to park in specified parking zones around campus. Below is a list of ePermits you are eligible for; please select an ePermit, check the box to submit any necessary documentation, and click Next/Save.
