1. The Agency is Seeking Students to Interview

   If you are a legacy student at the University of Southern Mississippi, we need your help. The Agency at Southern Miss is seeking students to interview for a special feature in the new MCJ outreach publication. If you are interested or would like more information, please contact Kaisha Brown at Kaisha.Brown@usm.edu or Cindy Blackwell at cindy.s.blackwell@usm.edu.

2. Interested in a $150 Textbook Scholarship?

   The Group for Organization and Learning Skills (GOALS) is currently recruiting students to participate in a study looking at the effectiveness of a program developed for individuals who experience difficulties with organization, time management and sustained focus. Through the GOALS program, students will learn skills such as time awareness; prioritizing tasks and assignments; scheduling and managing appointments; and breaking down projects into manageable segments.
The program will include a pre-program assessment ($50) and 10 group sessions ($8 each). Students who participate in all sessions will receive a $150 textbook scholarship and learn valuable skills for student success.

For more information, please contact Laura Hansen at laura.hansen@usm.edu. GOALS is supported by the USM Psychology Clinic.

3. Research Poster Competition Deadline, October 14
The Office of Sustainability is sponsoring a poster session on Saturday, Nov. 19. This event is open to both undergraduate and graduate students who have done research related to sustainability. This is a great opportunity to gain professional presentation skills and win prize money. A $250 scholarship will be awarded to the best undergraduate and graduate poster.
Interested students may apply online. The deadline for applications is Oct. 14. The event will be from 9 a.m.-noon in the Thad Cochran Center (map) Room 216. For more information, contact haley.mcminn@usm.edu.

4. Seeking Photographer for Wedding, November 12
Calling all student photographers, Marielle Edwards, is seeking someone to take wedding photos to be submitted to Signature magazine. Edwards wedding will be a day to remember and will involve the Boys and Girls Club in Hattiesburg. Children from the Boys and Girls club in the area are going to be a part of Edwards special day as a tribute to her years of mentorship. The photographer must have the ability to take high resolution photos and turn the pictures in on a disc for Edwards to send to Signature magazine.

The position will be paid and can be a great addition to your resume or portfolio. For more information contact, Marielle Edwards at 601-596-6906.

5. Recent Graduates or Seniors Seeking Jobs
Senior college students, those who recently graduated, and professionals in communications are invited to apply for the newly unveiled #DoGood Network, a free, online league of socially conscious individuals who want to find employment with good companies, strive to make a difference in the world, and want to connect with others who feel the same.

8. Internship Opportunities
