Degree Requirements
The master’s degree in Music Education is 30 credits - five required courses and five electives that can be chosen from online courses, summer intensive workshops or traditional, face-to-face classes offered on the Hattiesburg campus. (All classes listed below are online unless otherwise noted.)

Required Courses
- MED 725- Foundations of Music Education
- MUS 620- Music Theory Review (Offered each summer)
- MUS 630- Music History Review (Offered each summer)
- MED 632- Music Education Curriculum Design
- MED 629- Music Education Research Design

Elective Courses (choose five)
- MED 740- Music Education in the Elementary School
- MED 750- Music in General Education
- MED 756- Evaluation and Guidance in Music Education
- MED 714- Administration and Supervision of Elementary and Secondary School of Music Programs
- MED 538- Seminar in Band Literature
- MED 732-Workshop in Wind Band Conducting
  This class is a four-day workshop at the Hattiesburg campus
- MED 624- Music Education Practicum
- MED 692- Special Problems
  This class can be tailored to the needs of the student allowing for independent study in a particular topic such as Orff Schulwerk, Kodaly, Dalcoze, Advanced Instrumental or Choral Conducting or Music Education Research (Offered every semester).
- MED 745- Music and Special Learners

Course descriptions and rotation subject to change.
Contact us to be certain of requirements.

For more information on how to apply, please contact Dr. Webb Parker at webb.parker@usm.edu

www.usm.edu/music