Tips for successful field supervision:

1. Provide timely, honest feedback. Students want to know how they are doing.

2. Address concerns as they arise.

3. Call the field office if you have questions. We’re happy to help.

4. Maintain a professional boundary to avoid dual relationships. Be open to learning from your intern – our students are learning from the latest research.